DRIVE LAUNCHED HERE FOR CENTRAL ARENA

Structure Would Seat 10,000 Fans

Construction of a multi-purpose downtown arena, seating 10,000, financed by public subscription, was the ambitious project launched by 100 Edmonton hockey fans in the USO hall Tuesday night.

Making up in enthusiasm what they lacked in numbers, the public gathering, called by Ald. Sidney Parsons, appointed a seven-man ways and means committee to make preliminary study of the arena project. The committee will report back to another public meeting to be called later.

The committee is headed by J. A. Christiansen, prominent Edmonton automobile dealer and sportsman who sponsored Waterloo Motors intermediate hockey club in the past season.

Other committee members are: Ald. Parsons, W. E. Morrison, Clarence Richards, chairman of the Civic Recreation Commission; Donald C. Deane, Jack Jewel and A. S. Neale.

Chairman Christiansen, declared at the conclusion of the meeting: "I regard this as a worthy undertaking, fully worthy of the support of all citizens of Edmonton."

DETAILS OUTLINED

Ald. Parsons outlined in some detail the kind of arena he thought necessary to satisfy the needs of a city of 120,000. He repeated he is only interested "as a public-minded citizen and for no other purpose."

In reply to a question he said (Continued on Page Five)

2 City Districts Threatened With Mail Delivery Ban

By Dick Jackson

Edmonton Bulletin Ottawa Bureau

OTTAWA, March 31. — Deputy Postmaster-General Walter Turnbull today threatened to stop letter carrier delivery service to the Windsor Park and West Jasper Place districts of Edmonton.

He intimated that the Alberta capital many times had been granted preferential treatment compared to other Canadian cities and the lay of special "favors" for Edmonton is gone.

MIGHT "CORRECT ERROR"

Turnbull said the post office department "might be disposed to correct the error" if it is established that delivery service is being given mail to homes in Windsor Park and West Jasper Place, which, like the Grierson Estate, lack proper sidewalks.

"You mean?" he was asked.

"I mean that if proper sidewalks are lacking in those two districts, and if delivery service is being given them we might cut off the carrier routes."

"Can you be quoted?" he was asked.

"Yes, indeed. If we have made an error by giving delivery service where sidewalks are lacking, we will have to consider what action the department will take. And if the error has been serious enough, we might cut off the service."

Was there any chance of the department reconsidering its decision denying service to the 125 veteran residents of the Grierson Estate?

NO CHANCE FOR SERVICE

"There is no chance," said Mr. Turnbull. "If we have been in error in giving service to those other two districts, we do not intend to pile another mistake on the first two."

When informed that service to the Grierson Estate had been recommended by postal officials in Edmonton, Mr. Turnbull had a ready and sharp answer.

"How can that have become public knowledge, when such reports are supposed to be confidential!" he asked. "Any such recommendations are made here to headquarters, and should not be discussed by officials of our district office with the newspapers or anybody else."

Actually it didn't matter what postal authorities in Edmonton had recommended, he pointed out.

HEADQUARTERS DECISION

"The decision is one to be made only by postal headquarters here, and not by district offices. That's what we have a headquarters for."

Mr. Turnbull has been following editorials and news stories in The Edmonton Bulletin on the Grierson Estate situation, and made it very plain he was not to be budged.

"We've got to keep the service in balance in relation to various communities, and if we gave service to the Grierson Estate, we would have to do it for other communities, similarly lacking sidewalk facilities in all other parts of Canada."

Caucus Believed Planning Election

Social Credit members were called into caucus immediately after prorogation of the legislature Wednesday.

Rumors had been heard in corridors during the session that decision on election dates would be announced at this final caucus.

BOOTLEGGING TAXI-DRIVER IS FINED $300

Morality squad clean-up of Edmonton cracked down on a bootlegging taxi-driver with a $300 fine today.

Fined was Earl Schmidt, driver, who pleaded guilty to a charge of selling liquor illegally. An alternative of three months imprisonment was imposed.

Joseph Blamonte, miner, 9318 103 Ave., charged with keeping liquor for sale, reserved plea and was released on $1,000 bail.

Trial is scheduled for April 9.

Police alleged beer sold by Schmidt was supplied by Blamonte.

Five Buffalo Bisons Jailed After Fracas

NEW HAVEN, March 31.—(AP)—Five members of the Buffalo Bisons of the American Hockey League were arrested early today on a charge of breach of the peace following an altercation in a New Haven restaurant.

During the altercation, police said, Wallace Holland, 23, of New Haven, a counterman, was injured so severely he was taken to hospital where his condition was reported as "fair."

Under arrest are: Joe Bell, 24; of Portage La Prairie, Man.; Tommy Cooper, 30, of Winnipeg; Mike McMahon, 32, of Brockville, Ont.; Les Douglas, 29, of Perth, Ont.; and Leslie Hickey, 27, of Winnipeg.

BOND INCREASED

They originally were ordered held in bonds of $500 each but the bond was increased to $2,500 each when Holland's lawyer told the court his client apparently was injured severely.

A hospital spokesman said Holland had a critical injury to his left eye. X-rays were to be taken to determine if he had a fractured skull.

The Buffalo team last night defeated New Haven Ramblers, 6-2, to qualify for the finals of the league's Calder cup playoffs.

Police said the players entered the restaurant shortly before 4 a.m. and ordered food from counterman George Wilson. Holland, off duty, was eating nearby.

PLAYERS ABUSIVE

The trouble started, police said, when two of the players became abusive to Wilson and a "little cereal was thrown around." Wilson threatened to call the police and Holland was quoted as saying that was the thing to do. The players then pounced upon Holland, police said.

Bond was posted for the players and the case was continued until April 21.

EDMONTON COPS EITHER TRAP 'EM OR ARREST 'EM

Trapped or arrested?

It's hard to say whether Constables Jamie Dean and Pete Tyler were doing police work or hunting Tuesday night.

A call to the bus depot and they arrested a man by the name of Wolf for intoxication.

Twenty-five minutes later they responded to another call and arrested a drunk by the name of Fox.

Wolf came out of the deal better than Fox.

Wolf's fine was $20, Fox's $30.

Democracy at Work

GOOSE LAKE, Ia., March 31.—(AP)—Democracy was really in action in this eastern Iowa hamlet Tuesday. In the largest turnout in history, 92 of the 98 eligible voters cast ballots. The other six were ill.

Employers, Unions Alike Face Fines Under New Bill

Penalty Clauses Withstand Opposition in Committee

Employers as well as unions may be penalized under new amendments to the Alberta Labor Act.

Penalty clauses remained in the act after a two-hour committee debate of the legislature Tuesday.

Fines of $50 per day may be levied against employers, their officers or agents who authorize illegal lock-outs.

Previously, penalty sections applied only to unions or their officials who called illegal strikes.

Penalties remained incorporated in the legislation in spite of protests made before an agricultural committee by labor representatives.

Voices from the government side of the house merged Tuesday with those of opposition members seeking elimination of fines from the act.

PREMIER'S VIEW

"Only those who intend to break the law are worried about the penalties imposed," declared Premier Ernest Manning, defending the penalty clauses.

Other speakers supporting the new clauses endorsed the premier's statement.

Further amendment to the act gives union organizers the right to enter the employer's premises outside of working hours.

The change, explained minister of trade and industry C. E. Gerhart, gives organizers the privilege of approaching workmen during lunch and after working hours.

OPPOSES FINES

Fines were opposed by Liberal Leader Harper Prowse (Army) from the ranks of International and country-wide unions.

He referred to last year's packing-house strike and the International Typographical Union - Southam newspaper dispute.

Such strikes of national character, he said, put union members in position of dividing their loyalty between laws and their union.

Both disputes, said Labor Minister Gerhart, could have gone through the process of arbitration and conciliation with a supervised strike vote before the men walked out.

VOTE FOR RETENTION

They could still, he said, take a strike vote on a sympathy work stoppage even if all local demands had been granted.

Debate on the clause was terminated when an immediate vote was moved by Hon. N. E. Tanner, minister of lands and mines.

Vote supported the retention of penalty clauses in the legislation.

Food—Finance Plan Extended

OTTAWA, March 31.—(CP)—Britain and Canada will announce tomorrow a short-term extension of arrangements for financing of British purchases of Canadian foodstuffs, it was learned authoritatively today.

This extension will cover the period between today, when the financial arrangements were due to expire and the date when the United States European Recovery Program aid becomes available to Britain.

It was said the new arrangement involves "concessions" on both sides.

The financial arrangement is linked to food contracts negotiated at the year-end and involving shipment to Britain of bacon, beef, cheese and eggs during 1948. It also includes the four year Anglo-Canadian wheat agreement now in its second year.

Military Aid Snags Finn–Russ Talks

HELSINKI, March 31.—(Reuters)—Finland's insistence that Russia send her military aid only if specifically asked for, has caused a hitch in the Russo-Finnish negotiations for a military assistance and friendship pact, it was learned tonight.

President Juno Paasikivi, his cabinet and leaders of parliamentary political groups, were meeting to work out final instructions for the Finnish delegates who have been negotiating the pact in Moscow for the last week.

A compromise solution is being sought, it was understood.

A special courier, who arrived today by air from Moscow with the delegation's first full report to the government, will return to Moscow with the new instructions.

Tories and CCF Name Candidates

VANCOUVER, March 31.—(CP)—The Progressive Conservatives and the CCF Tuesday night each chose a 38-year-old candidate to oppose R. O. Campney, Liberal standard bearer, in the forthcoming Vancouver-Centre federal by-election.

Lyle Jestley, barrister, was chosen by Progressive Conservatives by acclamation to contest the riding made vacant by the appointment last December of former Veterans' Affairs Minister Ian Mackenzie to the Senate.

Rodney Pierce, overseas veteran in the Second World War and now studying law at University of British Columbia, was selected by the CCF nominating convention. He won out 46-37 over his only opponent, Grant McNeil, CCF member of parliament for Vancouver North from 1935-40.

Date of the by-election has not yet been set but it has been hinted it might take place near the end of May.

Packing Strike Report Thursday

CHICAGO, March 31.—(AP)—A government fact-finding board in the Chicago-area meat strike Wednesday put the finishing touches on a report due to be handed President Truman Thursday.

Solons' Indemnities Follows Prorogation

Sessional indemnities went out to MLA's Wednesday after the legislature closed.

Each member gets $2,000 less income tax, but Hon. Speaker Dawson and J. Percy Page, opposition leader, get $1,500 extra. Deputy Speaker James Hartley received a further $750.00 for his duties as chairman of the committee of the whole.

Cabinet ministers get a sessional indemnity of $1,800, but this is in addition to their regular salary of $6,000.

COPS TAKE NO CHANCES ON GAMBLING

City detectives were taking no chances on violation of gambling laws Tuesday and as a result some patron at the annual dog show didn't win a Cocker spaniel.

Officials of the show printed numbered tickets with the holder of one-sicket to get a purebred spaniel. Club officials considered it in the nature of a door prize and not an illegal raffle.

Morality squad detectives Dick Arcand and Herb Graham ruled, otherwise, however, so dog show officials called the whole thing off.

Profits from the dog show sponsored jointly by Capital City Kennel Club and English Cocker Spaniel Club go to hospitalized war veterans.

Flyers Are Due Home Tonight

By STAN MOHER

Bulletin Sports Editor

CALGARY, March 31. — Flyers, accompanied by Trail Smoke Eaters, were back in Calgary, just a leg from home, by noon Wednesday.

Departure—by special train—was made from Nelson at 6:00 p.m. Tuesday.

The teams will arrive in Edmonton at 10:15 p.m. to await the third game of their best-of-seven Western Canada Allan Cup semi-final series Thursday.

Neither coach Frank Currie of Flyers and Ab Cronie in the other camp—was saying much regarding the probable outcome of the third contest. Of course the Flyer mentor is the happy position of being two games in the clear over his coaching rival after 8-3 and 4-1 triumphs scored in Trail and Nelson, respectively.

SHOULD DO GOOD

"I'm looking forward to seeing how some of the kids go on that big sheet at Edmonton," Cronie admitted. Then he added: "They should go pretty good."

Beyond this he would not venture.

The "kids" Cronie had in mind are Terry Cavanagh, Louis Scott, "Shot Gun" Secco, and Frank Tarik.

Harvey (Pug) Young, whose play has been outstanding for several weeks, complained of a recurrence of a back ailment after the game in Nelson Monday night. He first injured it earlier in the season.

However, the big rearguard is expected to be in his spot when the puck is dropped Thursday.

U.S. Rent Control Extended For Year

WASHINGTON, March 31.—(AP)—President Truman signed a bill extending rent control for one year. He called it "better than no rent control at all." It gives 50,000,000 persons government rent protection until March 31, 1949.

Exchanges Active Despite Strike

NEW YORK, March 31.—(AP)—New York's struck stock and curb exchanges appeared to be surviving their first big test today as buying orders flooded in and prices rose.

The shouts of traders on the stock exchange floor were louder than the chant of the pickets that shuffled along in front of the building.

The third day of the strike of United Financial Workers (AFL) brought the first real volume of business.

The action was so fast as 580,000 shares changed hands in the first hour on the stock exchange that the quotation ticker tape fell behind floor transactions for brief periods. In the first hour Tuesday the volume was 220,000.

City Will Collect $13,424 in Rents From Dom. Govt.

Rentals totalling $13,424.75 will be paid by the Dominion department of public works to the city for space in the New Market building during the next 12 months.

Wednesday leases between the city and Dominion department was renewed for space in the building for the department of national health and the unemployment commission.

The former lease will expire on April 15. Health and the unemployment insurance lease on May 1, 1949.

Appeal Is Believed Likely On Freight Rates Decision

OTTAWA, March 31.—(CP)—Appeal against decision of the Board of Transport Commissioners to grant a 21-per-cent freight-rate increase to Canadian railways today appeared likely.

Out of a maze of conflicting views came the statement of Premier Garson of Manitoba that opposing provinces—excluding Ontario and Quebec—would open discussions toward launching an appeal.

Although there was no immediate comment on Mr. Garson's statement, Premier Douglas of Saskatchewan said the prairies and Maritimes would do well to ask for a royal commission to review the decision.

An appeal would delay implementation of the board's verdict—announced Tuesday. It could come on one or both of two grounds—law or fact. On law the appeal would be heard by the supreme court of Canada; on fact—as seems likely by the evidence. There would be no reference to Parliament.

The transport commissioners' decision means an added revenue of some $70,000,000 to the railways, although it does not give them the 30-per-cent. increase originally sought.

Grain and grain products moving in the west for domestic use are exempt. This placed grain in the same category as grain for export and the move was regarded as an attempt to even off partially the disparity between rate levels in the east and west.

CLAIMS DISMISSED

Otherwise, the board dismissed all claims for special regional consideration, including those of British Columbia and Alberta for lowered Rocky Mountain charges.

Most criticism immediately came from the west and the Maritime provinces, the most affected. It was conceded that an increase in freight rates means an increase in the cost of the things people buy.

Some sympathy to the railway's position was given by labor officials. A. R. Mosher, president of the Canadian Congress of Labor, said: "They should have got more than even the 30 per cent they asked for."

LOOK OUT, EDMONTON MORE WINTER AHEAD

More winter weather conditions are forecast for Edmonton region.

Temperatures here will continue high until noon today, when it is expected to be 37 above, but will drop fast after that. Snow is also forecast.

The lower temperatures will be caused by a snow storm centred about 100 miles north of Edmonton. The storm is moving southeast and is expected to be followed by a mass of cold air.

Thursday's temperatures will be considerably lower than today.

A cold wave passed over Prince Albert Tuesday night when the mercury dropped to 15 below, but no effects from this storm were felt in Alberta.

High in Edmonton Tuesday was 28 above and overnight low was 25.

Train Blast Kills Forty

JERUSALEM, March 31.—(AP)—A train from Cairo to Haifa was blown up today on the coastal plain, killing 40 persons and injuring 60, the government announced. Most of the victims were Arabs.

The blast occurred at Binyamina, 20 miles south of Haifa. The engine and four coaches of the train were derailed. The train was en route to Haifa, major Palestine port.

A government spokesman said he believed there were few if any British among the casualties.

OTHER KILLINGS

Four Arabs and three Jews were killed in sporadic gunplay elsewhere. The unofficial death toll since partition was decided upon Nov. 29, rose to 2,236.

The Palestine government said three former British policemen, a British civilian and a German internee escaped Acre prison Tuesday by breaking cell block locks.

Meanwhile the food shortage in Jerusalem's Jewish sector came in for attention, a government spokesman saying it could be eased if the Jewish agency co-operated with the government and the army.

CHIEF OF POLICE ARRESTS HIMSELF

CENTRAL CITY, Pa., March 31. — (AP) — Being chief of police has its disadvantages too.

Chief L. S. Smith Tuesday found a warrant for his own arrest, filed by the chief's wife. The warrant charged non-support.

Chief Smith signed, then arrested himself.

"Missing Heir" Sought In Canada and U.S.

LONDON, March 31.—(Reuters)—Inquiries are being made in Canada and the United States for possible "missing heir" to an old Irish baronetcy.

Family records show that a Lynch-Blosse, second son of the 10th baronet, died at a place given as "Anstruther, Canada West," July 26, 1864.

Robert Cyril Lynch-Blosse, of Worthing, Sussex, claimed the title in 1942 on the death of a distant cousin, Sir Robert, the 12th baronet. It was not accepted, however, because there was a doubt about the lineage.

SEE GREATER CLAIM

Francis Lynch-Blosse, it was thought, might have married and had children. If that were so, his descendants would have greater claim to the title.

So far all efforts to find out what happened to Francis Lynch-Blosse in his later years have failed.

The key to the problem is the whereabouts of Anstruther, Canada West. No one knows where it is—not even the geographical society.

The town may have changed its name through the years or never have existed and the entry in the records might be wrong.

Meanwhile there is no baronet and search for "Anstruther" goes on.

11 Czech Airmen Land in Germany

MUNICH, March 31.—(Reuters)—Eleven Czechoslovak air force pilots landed with their planes on the Riem airfield near Munich during the week-end and now have left for an unknown destination, it was learned here Tuesday night.

News of their arrival had hitherto been kept secret by the United States occupation authorities.

HE "GOT MAD" AT MOTORISTS

Irate Truck Driver Gets Stern Treatment by Cadi

George Gartel, 10151 95 street, a city truck driver, discovered it doesn't pay to let one's ire influence him while driving in the city.

Pleading guilty to charges of dangerous driving in police court Wednesday, he was fined $50 and costs or three months and his license was suspended for four months.

Constable Tommy Botsford, who arrested Gartel, told the court he followed the accused's truck for a half a mile along 95 street and on four occasions the truck driver veered his vehicle into the path of cars approaching from the opposite direction.

When asked if he had anything to say to the charge, Gertel replied: "I got mad because the other cars didn't dim their lights when I dimmed mine. I couldn't see very well so I wanted to scare them."

In passing sentence Magistrate Millar gave Gartel a verbal lashing and told him he had "no right to take the law into his own hands and jeopardize lives of others."

Teachers Protest New Legislation

Resignations Seen If Amendment Before Legislature Is Passed

CALGARY, March 31.—(CP)—Delegates attending the annual general meeting of the Alberta Teachers' Association Tuesday protested an amendment to the school act that would empower municipal councils to question an increase of 10 per cent, or more, of monies requested by school boards for educational purposes.

The protest was wired to the minister of municipal affairs. The amendment now is before the legislature. At present municipal councils are bound, by law, to grant all money requested by school boards for education.

RESIGNATIONS THREATENED

H. E. Spencer, president of the Alberta School Trustees' Association, said many school trustees would resign if the legislation passed. "Trustees are not going to carry on administration with their hands tied behind their back," he declared.

E. C. Ansley, general secretary of the ATA, said salary increases granted teachers during the last year averaged 22 per cent. He predicted that passage of the legislation would hinder further salary increases.

The teachers passed a resolution recommending that the ATA executive, together with representatives from the Alberta School Trustees' Association, the department of trade and industry and the department of education, study the question of putting a provincial salary schedule into use. The resolution stipulated that the executive would make no commitments without securing the approval of the councillors.

CONVENTION DATES

The teachers passed a timetable for all conventions proposed by the executive. Conventions will be held at Grande Prairie, Sept. 13 and 14; Peace River, Sept. 16 and 17; Lac La Biche, Sept. 20 and 21; Red Deer, Sept. 23 and 24; 2nd Edmonton district, Sept. 27 and 28; Edmonton, Sept. 30 and Oct. 1; Camrose, Oct. 4 and 5; 1st Edmonton district, Oct. 7 and 8; Two Hills and St. Paul, Oct. 11 and 12; Vermilion, Oct. 14 and 15; Coronation, Oct. 21 and 22; Hanna, Oct. 21 and 22; Calgary, Oct. 25 and 26; Calgary district (rural), Oct. 28 and 29; Lethbridge, Nov. 1 and 2; Medicine Hat, Nov. 4 and 5.

Any local which prefers to plan its own convention may do so by informing the general secretary at least 10 days before the annual general meeting, according to a resolution passed.

Anti-Labor Plot Claimed

TORONTO, March 31.—(CP)—A former union official said Tuesday in a sworn statement that he quit the Canadian Lake Seamen's Union because "I can no longer be a party to an anti-labor plot."

He is Edward Hayes, a CLSU organizer at Fort William until about two weeks ago. He said the "plot" was directed against the Canadian Seamen's Union, an affiliate of the Trades and Labor Congress.

Mr. Hayes made his statement at a press conference called by J. W. Buckley, TLC secretary-treasurer.

It criticized J. A. (Pat) Sullivan, CLSU president, who formed that organization after resigning as CSU boss. At the time of his resignation, Mr. Sullivan said the CSU was Communist-dominated.

Mr. Hayes said his experience as a CLSU organizer "convinced me that the activities of these two men were not aimed at building a legitimate union but at furthering a racket."

He had been told by Mr. Sullivan that Canada Steamship Lines were behind his union 100 per cent. Chapman had confided that the RCMP would assist Sullivan in "doing a job" on the CSU.

MONTREAL, March 31.—(CP)—J. A. (Pat) Sullivan, president of the recently-formed Canadian Lake Seamen's Union, said Tuesday he will take legal action to make Edward (Ned) Hayes substantiate statements attributed to him in Toronto.

Mutineer-Soldiers Surrender Quietly

MANILA, March 31.—(AP)—Philippine constabulary headquarters announced the peaceful surrender today of a group of soldiers who had mutinied and slain three officers. The number surrendering was not reported here. Forty-four had been holding out in constabulary quarters at Naic, 23 miles southwest of Manila.

Canada's Military Inadequate MP Says

CALGARY, March 31. — (CP) — Comparison with the United States forces indicates Canada should have 130,000 men in the army, air force and navy, E. D. Fulton, Progressive Conservative member of parliament for Kamloops, said here Tuesday night.

"At the present rate of recruitment, according to figures given by the defence minister, it will take 10 years for Canada's armed forces to reach a total comparable to that now existing in the U.S.A.," Mr. Fulton said.

"Yet the United States has said that her services are inadequate to meet the task imposed upon them—the task not of making war but of preserving peace."

Mr. Fulton, in an address prepared for delivery to a meeting of the Young Progressive Conservatives of Calgary, said the government refused to discuss the position of Canada's forces.

He said that the United States now had 1,392,000 men under arms and authorization for forces of 1,700,000 on a comparative basis, he continued, Canada should have 107,000 men actually in the forces and authorization for a total of 130,000.

He said questions in the commons had disclosed that Canada's forces total less than 34,000 men and the rate of recruitment about 9,000 a year.

Calgary Farewells Barbara Ann Scott

CALGARY, March 31.—(CP)—More than 6,000 spectators roared farewell to Barbara Ann Scott last night as the pretty Ottawa skater gave her final exhibition performance at the Glencoe Club ice carnival here.

The 19-year-old figure skating star, who holds the world's premier women's titles, is scheduled to leave Calgary by plane today for Manitoba. She will give performances at Brandon and Winnipeg before continuing east.

During her 10-day stay here, during which she added the Canadian Women's Figure skating crown to her long list of championship laurels, Barbara Ann completely won the hearts of Calgary residents with her gay smile and charming personality.

Following last night's performance before an over-flow audience, Miss Scott was presented with an honorary life membership in the Glencoe Club.

SEARCH IS ORDERED FOR MISSING HEIRS

LONDON, Ont., March 31.—(CP)—A search for three missing heirs to proceeds of a $430,000 estate was ordered Tuesday.

The estate is that of Mrs. Elizabeth Lloyd, who died in 1890. Her will provided for sale of six blocks of property here when the last of her children died and for distribution of the proceeds among her grandchildren.

Mrs. Grace Lloyd Taylor, the last surviving child, died in Toronto last June. But three grandchildren cannot be found.

Judge Ian MacRae ordered the estate executor to advertise in New York, Detroit, San Francisco and Bay City, Mich., for Fanny O'Reilly, William O'Reilly and Harry Flaven. The case was adjourned to June 1.

Claims as grandchildren have been entered by Walter H. O'Reilly of Albany, N.Y., Mrs. Edith O'Reilly Weller of Detroit and Elizabeth Lloyd Waram of Toronto.

ONLY COURT, CABINET CAN BLOCK INCREASE

OTTAWA, March 31.—(CP)—A legal authority said last night that decision of the Board of Transport Commissioners to boost freight-rates 21 per cent is binding unless an appeal is launched or the governor-in-council—the cabinet—decides the increase is too great. There is no reference to Parliament.

An appeal can be made on two counts—law or fact. On law it goes to the supreme court of Canada. On fact it is considered by the cabinet.

A source recalled that some years ago the cabinet decided a similar increase was too great and withheld it for months. Eventually the boost was granted.

The cabinet also could order a re-hearing, but this was not considered likely.

More Air School Buildings Sold

OTTAWA, March 31.—(CP)—Disposal of more of the training school buildings used by Canadian and Commonwealth airmen during the war was announced yesterday by War Assets Corp.

Out in Manitoba, the town of Ochre River purchased for removal seven buildings, including a canteen, a recreation and drill hall, supply depot, watch office, fusing hut and pyrotechnic stores building, from the former No. 7 Bombing and Gunnery School at Paulson aerodrome.

In addition, the corporation has disposed of three motor vessels formerly used by the army and two used by the RCAF during February, sales of ships and ship components totalled $115,732,000.

The power of the veto was originally exercised by the tribunes of ancient Rome.

HE MADE SURE THEY GOT HEAT

NEW YORK, March 31.—(CP)—Stephen Bodner, 42-year-old tenement building superintendent, yesterday was charged with attempted arson after admitting to police that he started a fire in the basement of one of his dwellings. Police quoted him as saying:

"I was mad at the tenants. They're always pounding on the pipes for heat."

The fire, started in a baby carriage, was discovered by a tenant and quickly extinguished by firemen.

Atomic Talks At 'Dead End'

LAKE SUCCESS, March 31.—(CP)—Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, chief Canadian delegate to the United Nations, said yesterday that talks on formation of a world atomic control agency "are at a dead end." The control committee of the UN atomic energy commission adjourned without setting a date for another meeting.

Gen. McNaughton, a member of the commission since its formation in January, 1946, said that he agreed with the United States proposal for suspension of further talks on the make-up of a control agency.

Britain, France and Belgium also supported the United States view expressed by Frederick H. Osborn, United States atomic deputy, that there is no use discussing the agency in view of differences between Russia and the committee majority.

Gen. McNaughton said that Canada, which supplied hydro-electric experts to testify before the committee, had been anxious to have Soviet experts agree and would have listened to them with an open mind.

This hope, however, has been disappointed.

The Canadian delegate said that it had been hoped that discussion of the agency's organization and composition would have opened an opportunity for the Soviet delegation to offer a contribution. There was disappointment in this hope also.

Govt. Operation Hydro In Manitoba Suggested

WINNIPEG, March 31.—(CP)—Exclusive government responsibility for development and operation of all hydro-electric power plants in Manitoba was recommended Tuesday by Dr. Thomas H. Hogg in a report of the Manitoba Water Power Commission tabled in the legislature by Resources Minister J. S. McDiarmid.

The lengthy report said this would mean:

The taking over by lease or purchase of the Winnipeg river power plans of the Winnipeg Electric Company and the city of Winnipeg hydro-electric plants.

Development of adequate sources of power over the next 20 years including completion of the Slave Falls and Seven Sisters Falls plants and development of new power sources at a probable cost ranging from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000.

The report warned present operating utilities are able to meet existing power demands only because of relatively high levels occurring on the Winnipeg river. It recommended the government give early consideration to power control in the event of future shortages of power.

EARLY DEVELOPMENT NEEDED

Other recommendations included: Development of the Pine Falls and McArthur Falls sites on the Winnipeg River with the least possible delay; and Closest co-ordination between Ontario and Manitoba on developments of the Winnipeg River watershed in Ontario and the same river system in Manitoba.

Even with continued high river flows and on the basis of developments now under way the report said the present two utilities could meet anticipated power requirements only to 1951 or at the latest to 1952.

LEGISLATION "DIES" AS HOUSE PROROGUES

Two pieces of legislation "died on the order paper" when Alberta's legislature prorogued at 10:45 a.m. today.

They were a bill setting forth the duties of the Civil Service commissioner and a bill to regulate prices of fuel gas, which Calgary residents feared would lower prices to industrial users at the expense of domestic consumers.

Ninety-six bills were given Royal Assent by Lieutenant-Governor J. C. Bowen who also made the formal closing speech of the session.

In it he thanked the members for the care and attention they had given the business of the province.

House Highlights

By TED HORTON

When the public accounts committee went "in camera" Tuesday, Dr. J. L. Robinson, chairman, had to "put the run" on his wife, who had been an interested spectator of the proceedings up to then.

• • •

When Harper Prowse, Liberal leader, threw 25 cents on his desk and announced he would pay the search fees for a copy on a mortgage he was discussing in the public accounts committee, he almost got the action he wanted.

• • •

"Where's that from, the slush fund?" came a voice sounding like Gordon Taylor, government whip.

• • •

It WAS Gordon Taylor, too.

• • •

However it was pointed out such a search would be a disclosure of private business, so Mr. Prowse put his two bits back in his pocket.

• • •

It was a bright moment in municipal law committee Tuesday when George F. Henbest, representing the barbers of Edmonton was asked "Do you charge the same price for cutting a head of hair like Jack Landeryou's as you do for Elmer Roper's?"

• • •

Jack Landeryou owns a thick mop of black hair while the CCF leader owns very little.

• • •

Sessional indemnities were paid out Wednesday. All those nice fat cheques for $2,000 each! As lovely a scene as you could wish for.

• • •

None left over for the press gallery, either!

Legislature Ends Its Fifth Session

Political Resignations, Labor Act Amendments Chief Items

Fifth session of Alberta's 10th legislature passed into history Wednesday morning.

The session, that opened on February 19 was officially prorogued at 10:45 o'clock after royal assent was given 97 pieces of legislation approved by the house.

Main features of an otherwise uneventful session were the approval of amendments to the Alberta Labor Act and a political development resulting in resignation of Hon. R. Earl Ansley as minister of education and L. D. Byrne, deputy minister of economic affairs.

Both resignations were asked for by the Manning cabinet.

BITTER OPPOSITION

Alberta Labor Act amendments, providing stiff penalties for illegal strikes and lockouts were bitterly opposed by organized labor.

Regular five-year review of the Workmen's Compensation Act resulted in several changes, an act to provide special compensation for blind workers being the highlight.

New provincial speed limits on highways of 55 miles per hour in daytime and 45 mph at night were approved by the house.

PROVINCIAL RECORD

A new provincial record was set when the legislature approved a budget of $58,275,000, which provided for a deficit of $6,306,000 to be paid from accumulated surpluses.

The government was asked to study grain marketing with particular attention to the sale of coarse grains and to call a special session later if deemed necessary.

The legislature also authorized passage of any legislation necessary to deal with grain marketing.

Tabled during the session was the Judge report on municipal-provincial tax relations and the Hincks report on Alberta mental hospitals.

Following the resignation of Mr. Ansley as minister of education, it was learned that a special Douglas Social Credit Council had been formed with the former cabinet minister as a member.

A. V. Bourcier, (SC Lac Ste. Anne) is chairman of the board.

Mr. Bourcier was chairman of the Alberta Social Credit Board which passes out of evistence on April 1.

RAIDERS STEAL NARCOTICS, CASH

A quantity of narcotics were stolen from a drug store in Calmar Tuesday night.

RCMP report a detail of men left Edmonton to investigate.

The door was forced open to gain entrance.

Besides the narcotics $10 cash was taken.

The Calmar Drug Store is owned by Stanley Middrie.

Pipeline Seen By September

Provided pipe is available the Imperial Pipeline Company will be operating 50 miles of pipeline in the Edmonton district by September, according to W. G. Sexton, company president and general manager.

At present the pipeline consists of 12 miles of small gathering and lateral lines in the Leduc field and eight miles of eight-inch line linking the main field at Leduc with Nisku.

A six-inch line will connect the Woodbend field with the pipeline south of the river by July. This line will cross the Saskatchewan river on the river bed.

WORK TO COMMENCE

Work will commence shortly on a 17 mile eight-inch line to connect the terminus at Nisku with the refinery east of Edmonton's city limits. The line will parallel the railway to Nisku and then cut across country to the refinery site.

The line will be complete by September if steel is available. Storage space at Nisku will be increased shortly from 20,000 barrels to 110,000 barrels to take care of mounting production in the field.

If booster pumps are provided it is believed that the eight-inch line will be able to handle 40,000 barrels per day.

City and District Britain Visitors Land at Halifax

A number of Edmonton and Northern Alberta people returning from trips to Great Britain are scheduled to arrive at Halifax aboard Canadian Pacific Steamships' Empress of Canada today.

Ronald W. Greene, assistant general agent of CP Steamships in Edmonton, said the passengers returning to Edmonton would likely arrive here on April 4.

Nationality Clause Taken Out Labor Act

The clause in the Alberta Labor act which would have restricted the nationality of labor union officers to Canadians was tossed out on Tuesday.

In their plea to agriculture committee of the legislature on the proposed amending bill to the Labor Act, all labor organizations had requested the clause be struck out.

They felt such a restriction would place unions at a disadvantage particularly in dealing with representatives of American firms doing business in Canada.

EVERYTHING FOR NORTHERN FLIERS

Air Rescue Is Specialty In Unique City Industry

By CECIL JACKMAN

Operating in a large hangar at Edmonton's airport is a firm believed to be unique in private industry.

Known as Hargreaves and Dick, Northland Outfitters, the organization is recognized by flying men everywhere as the pioneer in the parachute rescue business.

The genial partners who operate the business, Owen Hargreaves and Jack Dick have developed an idea that had its inception when they were continuously engaged by USAAF, RCAF and civilian organizations to conduct searches for fliers lost in the north during the early days of the war.

Later they enlisted in the RCAF and were the original instructors at the first Parachute Rescue School which was organized in Edmonton by W. R. "Wop" May.

Discharged from the RCAF in November 1946, the pair immediately organized the north's only civilian search and rescue business.

In their headquarters at the airport Hargreaves and Dick maintain an establishment that provides goods and services for practically every private flier that passes through the city.

Their combination grocery store and hardware has a supply of everything a flier can need from emergency rations to shaving lotion.

For those planning a trip into the north the firm provides special services.

A staff is employed to manufacture and repair special canvas, fabric and leather articles such as footwear, tents and prospectors' sample bags.

All aircraft going into the north are required to carry certain equipment. Owen and Jack see to it that they conform to the law. Maps are available, and the pilots are briefed on emergency landings. A book "Crash and Live," published by the pair, gives full information on conditions that will be encountered by anyone forced down in rugged country. The grounded pilot will have first aid instructions, methods of travel and living off the country all described by a pair of outdoor men who know.

Emergency kits give the partners a chance to add the personal touch. The kits contain everything from fish-hooks to penicillin. A third member of the organization is a doctor who formerly belonged to the Canadian Army paratroopers and who is ready to jump at anytime to administer emergency treatment.

Last year when the Saskatchewan government organized an aerial fire fighting service to protect valuable timber stands in the Prince Albert area Hargreaves and Dick were called upon to train the men in parachute jumping technique.

Owen Hargreaves organized the course in June, 1947.

Eight men were selected for the course which included instruction in first aid and forest fire control as well as parachute packing and jumping. The course lasted for six weeks.

Since that time enquiries about conducting similar courses have been received from various countries scattered over the globe.

Hargreaves and Dick are prepared to go anywhere that their services can be used to make flying safe.

Two Divisions At Last Sitting

Two divisions marked the final sitting of the Alberta legislature Wednesday.

One was called when Arthur Wray, (Ind SC Banff-Cochrane) tried to kill the amendments to the Alberta Labor Act by giving third reading a "six-month" hoist.

The other was called for by the CCF on amendments to the school taxation act which allowed an appeal to department of municipal affairs if municipal tax-collecting authorities felt school appropriations were too high.

MINOR DEFECTIONS

Minor defections from the government side took place in both divisions. On the Labor Act amendments, J. C. Landeryou (SC Lethbridge) and N. A. Willmore (SC Edson) voted against the bill.

It was opposed by Mr. Roper, Mr. Liesemer, (W. J. Williams (Vet Edmonton), Arthur Wray (Ind SC Banff-Cochrane), L. D. Ward (Navy) and Harper Prowse (Army) Alberta Liberal leader.

Attempt to kill the school taxation bill found R. Earl Ansley (SC Leduc), Mrs. Rose Wilkinson (SC Calgary) L. C. Halmrast (SC Warner), W. Tomyn (SC Willingdon) and A. V. Bourcier (SC Lac Ste. Anne) lined up with the two CCF members, J. Percy Page, (Ind Edmonton), Mr. Wray and Mr. Prowse.

U.S. Writer Likes City

Promise of the future is everywhere in Canada, is the opinion of much-travelled Richard S. Bird, special staff writer of New York Herald Tribune.

Mr. Bird arrived in Edmonton Wednesday, on his way through to Vancouver, as part of an assignment to find out what Canadians think of the U.S.

"The dollar shortage has awakened American people to problems of Canada," he said.

In Ottawa he spoke with various government officials and then continued his tour through Quebec, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Saskatoon, where he was caught in a blizzard.

Edmonton, he says, is a thriving, busy place. People in the States talk a lot about Edmonton.

Despite the fact that his plane made a forced landing at Toronto, after being caught in the fringe of a tornado, Mr. Bird likes Canada very much. "I am interested in Canada," he said. "It has immense resources and the people are extremely friendly. And I'm going to tell the American people all about it."

THIEF MUST BE PAINTER

City Land Sales Brisk

Sales were brisk in the city land department today.

Six parcels of land were sold as sites for commercial buildings. Total sales was $5,445.

A. Michall, 9523 106 avenue, acquired a lot on 97 street south of 106 avenue for $855 on which he will build a jewellry store costing $8,000.

Dr. Egbert Wilkinson, 10709 111 avenue, purchased the south west corner at 118 avenue and 83 street for $760 on which he will erect a store and office building costing $7,000.

A. M. Neilson, 10018 105 street, will erect a workshop and storage plant on the east side of 106 street north of 105 avenue. Purchase price of property was $760.

Agnes Hustad, 10030 80 avenue, paid $600 for a lot on the north side of Whyte avenue, west of 100 street, on which a $5,500 store building will be erected.

Cement Here To Plug Well

Trucks were busy hauling 1,000 bags of Calseal and 3,000 bags of cement to Atlantic Leduc No. 3 today.

As soon as this material arrives at the well efforts to finally check the gas flow will be started.

It is understood that an expert has arrived from the United States to supervise the work of pumping the cement into the hole, which has defied all efforts at control for over ten days.

It is anticipated that there will be considerable difficulty in getting this material into the well as gas seepages have made it dangerous to use the boilers that provide power for the pumps.

Power will have to be provided from another rig some 1,500 feet away.

Home Oil Leduc No. 5 tested from 5,017 to 5,090 feet and recovered 3,240 feet of oil. Gas flow was estimated at 250,000 cubic feet. Drilling is being continued.

Mr. Ashby said today he was still without reply to a telegram sent last Friday to Hon. Ernest Bertrand, K. C., postmaster-general for Canada, urging immediate postal deliveries in the district.

Mr. Ashby addressed wounded veterans in the Col. Mewburn Pavilion today dealing with problems of all war veterans.

Juvenile Court To Handle Case Of Girl Forger

A 16-year-old girl who spent more than $200 on a clothes-buying spree was sent to juvenile court today.

She pleaded guilty a week ago to six charges of obtaining money by uttering forged documents.

At time of her arrest, she told police she was 19 years old.

She was remanded to this date for sentence.

Labor Unions Planning Alberta Act Offensive

Canadian Congress of Labor (CIO) unions Wednesday announced a program aimed at the eventual abolition of recent amendments to the Alberta Labor Act.

It was also expected that Trades and Labor Congress (AFL) affiliates would make new protest against penalty clauses for illegal strikes. Such action would come through the executive of the Alberta Federation of Labor with offices in Calgary, Edmonton trades and labor council officers said Wednesday.

Jan Lakeman, chairman of the provincial committee of the Canadian Congress of Labor, predicted the government would eventually abandon amendments providing heavy fines for illegal strikes.

Mr. Lakeman announced the following six-point program has been approved by Canadian Congress of Labor affiliates in Alberta:

(1) Special local union meetings of all Canadian Congress of Labor affiliates at which the new amendments will be explained.

(2) A call to joint union membership meetings in larger centres.

(3) Issue of explanatory leaflets to all trade unionists.

(4) Issue of suitable leaflets to organized individual farmers.

(5) Raising of a fund of $5,000 to defeat the bill through popular demand.

(6) Calling of a special conference of Canadian Congress of Labor affiliates in Calgary before May 1 to decide on what steps should be taken as a result of passage of the amending bill in the legislature.

Differential the Real Issue

The 21 percent increase in most Canadian freight rates will be accepted by the West, at least, as a necessary if painful economic affliction in accord with rising costs. But the real issue in this end of Canada is the mountain differential and the board of transport commissioners should reconsider its refusal to end that iniquity.

There is no doubt that the freight rate increases will elevate the cost of living on many commodities. This cannot be avoided because while it is important to keep the living costs index at the lowest possible level, it is also important to maintain the transportation structure in a healthy state. The railways cannot be expected to absorb rising costs to a point where their service has to be curtailed or amended.

The entire situation with regard to freight rates has been surveyed by an impartial board responsible to the government of Canada and it must be assumed that that board's finding is fair and equitable to a point.

But if the board of transport commissioners has thus demonstrated so generously the spirit of fairness towards the railways, it has certainly failed to demonstrate that same spirit of fairness, with equal generosity, towards the West in the matter of the mountain differential.

All western provinces made strong representations about the mountain differential which, applicable from Broadview, Saskatchewan to the Pacific Coast, has long crippled commerce in this part of Canada.

And Edmonton is at the peak of the differential's effect. In that complicated arrangement designed to give the railways extra revenue for hauling freight over the mountains, it is sometimes cheaper to ship goods from Montreal to Vancouver than it is to ship those same goods from Montreal to Edmonton. And there is no mountain haul at all between this city and the Atlantic Coast.

The board of Transport commissioners has taken a realistic view on the freight rate situation from the railways' standpoint in granting rate increases of 21 percent. If it took the same realistic view of the freight rate situation from Alberta's standpoint, the mountain differential would be removed at once.

Is the World Yet Ready for Peace?

On the front page of a March edition of the Evening Times-Globe of Saint John, N.B., appeared a letter written by a corporal in the 1st Battalion, Saint John Fusiliers.

The editor of the Times-Globe, noting the threat of war and anxious to discover the attitude of young men to going into uniform, ran the corporal's letter. Here is part of it, the language unedited:

"It pains me greatly to hear so many lately say that they wouldn't go to war unless they were forced. I don't want war the same as any other does, but when it does come I won't have to be chased to join.

"Love of your country is as fine a thing as anybody can boast of. Next Wednesday we have our annual inspection. If these people who say they wouldn't go to war would only go down and watch us and see the Fusiliers on parade, and see the colors marched on and the band playing, swords drawn and every man standing there knowing he owes his country something and has a duty to perform, if that doesn't bring out the Canadian in him, nothing will."

On the following day the Times-Globe ran a follow-up letter from one of the corporal's officers. Here is part of it:

"If some of the people who cast disparaging remarks about the militia could do as you say —go and watch the Fusiliers on parade with their drums and band, and the colors, the emblem of loyalty to our King and country, set off in all their martial glory—I am sure that they would feel as you do and become good and loyal patriots.

"I think a spirit such as yours is very commendable, and if I knew your identity I would be the first one to recommend you for your third chevron."

Viewpoints Pro and Con

These two letters produced several others. On the third day the Times-Globe ran a letter signed "International Patriot." Here is an excerpt from it:

"I am neither prepared nor have I come to any conclusion regarding personal participation in any war, defensive or otherwise, should the rumors now abroad become a reality. Don't mistake me for a pacifist. I'm not—nor am I a conscientious objector. I am merely making an attempt in this highly organized world at being an individual.

"And if war comes I will close my eyes to the flag waving; I will shut out the noise of the band playing; I will not see the placards and the propaganda. I will try to continue making my own deductions and form my own conclusions.

"I am not asking the corporal to change his views. I merely want him to think for himself. When he thinks of the glories of war, I want him also to try to picture clearly in his mind the mutilated body of a hideously wounded soldier.

"I would like him to visit the wards of the soldiers' hospitals. I would like him to picture himself dropping shells in the midst of groups of young men whom he doesn't even know and who might have been his friends."

Who Is the Individualist?

This letter, in turn, was followed by a bitter letter from a veteran and signed "Old Sweat." Here is part of it, addressed to "International Patriot":

"Really, the corporal is much more of an individualist than you. He has given serious thought to world conditions and has read of the rape of other countries. He has decided that he would not like to see his country or his people subjected to the same treatment. He has realized that the world is not yet ready for the Great Universal Peace.

"Quietly, and without any mob hysteria to urge him on, he has made up his mind that he can best protect his loved ones by being prepared to fight, if and when necessary."

The Times-Globe fifth letter came from a Saint John woman who signed herself, "One Who Admires and Respects The Militia." It read, in part:

"No one wants war, except certain nations. But it is only the most short-sighted who will claim that it is not the part of wisdom to be prepared to defend not only civilization and democracy, but Canada, wives and families. I for one am deeply grateful to the boys and men who make up our militia, and who give their time to be trained."

Then, to conclude the subject, the Times-Globe ran a final letter from the corporal who wrote:

"I lost my father in the last war. I might add that my wife is against me going to drills, but as you know we conceive men mostly and women cannot understand anything only that they may lose their loved ones . . ."

I suppose you are wondering why I have reproduced so much of this newspaper correspondence when similar letters are an everyday affair in our own letter columns—or why I have wired the editor of the Times-Globe asking him the fate of the writing Corporal.

The reason is simple. These timely letters were in March editions of the newspaper, but the year was 1938.

Increased Pensions for Teachers

The new legislative amendments that increase teachers' pensions in Alberta to 52½ percent of the average salary they have received over their last five years of service are an encouraging sign of public awakening to the importance of the teacher's task in the community.

Under the new system, teachers who have averaged $100 a month over their last five yeers will receive $52.50 per month pension. Those who have averaged $200 a month will receive $105 a month pension.

Towards this pension fund, the teachers themselves will contribute 4 percent of their salary instead of 3 percent as in the past.

The government's contribution will be up to 3½ percent of the total amount of the teachers' salaries. This means that the government's annual portion will increase from $35,000 to $320,000.

The contributions from school boards towards the retirement fund will remain at one-half of one percent.

This new arrangement by no means provides a princely retirement allowance for teachers, largely because the percentages are based on salaries that are ridiculously inadequate in the first place.

The salary paid in Alberta cities is $1908.41. The overall average throughout the province is $1652.02.

When these are adjusted to a level commensurate with the importance of the teacher's work, the new pension plan will assume a more satisfactory significance.

Heaven Defend the Kilt

There is a clamorous uproar in Scotland over the report that certain Sassenach tailors propose to give the kilt the "new look." The story is that these English tailors, making kilts for export, will let the garment down at least six inches so that it will flop dismally about the wearer's calves.

Scottish distress is expressed vigorously by Sir Donald Cameron of Lochiel who very properly declares that the kilt is not subject to the vagaries of style, and, traditionally, should come to the middle of the kneecap so that it touches the ground when one kneels.

While the thought of a braw Highlander kneeling is a bit overwhelming, the fact remains that Sir Donald Cameron stands on very sound ground in the dispute for the charm of the kilt, like the charm of wit, lies in its brevity.

It is a pity, for quite other reasons, that fashion has presumed to meddle with the length of the kilt because that garment is at once the most ancient and the most sensible attire possible to be donned by man.

It permits freedom of action. It permits circulation of air. It is handsome, dignified and sensible.

But to lengthen the kilt would be to put Scotland in petticoats. A laddie might just as well wear trews.

Spring Perils for Children

The city police have issued warnings with regard to the safety of children that should be repeated in every school and in every home.

The first warning is to stay off the river ice and away from the vicinity of the river altogether. In many places this ice is soft and will not bear the weight of a child.

The second warning is to keep away from excavations that, filled with snow and ice, may appear to be safe but which, in the milder weather, could easily trap and drown a child.

This latter warning is made applicable to home builders who have dug these excavations. The holes should be fenced off or otherwise made inaccessible to children.

A little timely caution with regard to these points will mitigate the perils of spring to children and may save young lives.

Public Should Refuse Prices

Editor, Bulletin—It's good to see that the government is investigating the high price of foods.

Wheat is selling at $2 a bushel (that's 56 pounds). With added liquids, mostly water, that makes around 70 loaves of bread. Yet the large bakeries are charging 11 cents for a 15 oz. loaf. When butter was selling at 60 cents a pound, you could buy only half a pound at a time. But now it is over 70 cents a pound there is no shortage. You can buy half a ton if you want. It's time the public refused to pay these prices.

English are Not Desperate

Editor, Bulletin—I have just read an article in the London Evening Standard on one of Alberta's leading citizens, the Honorable A. J. Hooke. Apparently, the Honourable etc's. constitution has suffered an irretrievable setback by a three-month stay in Great Britain.

My word, Mr. Hooke you must have suffered! How I feel for you! As partners in suffering, I think I must swap stories with you.

I am married and my wife expects her first child in May. We are of what is, in England, known as the lower middle class. My wages are a mere more than the equivalent of $30 weekly. You will agree, nothing in proportion with the "pocket money" of a minister of economic affairs. I assert that myself and my wife, and my unborn child, will stand it well with an equivalent anywhere in the world.

No England is not desperate—not the ordinary man and woman. And the charge that Canada is being ignored and boycotted by England is utter libel on England's little man. What sort of people do you think we are?

I suggest that the Honourable what's-his-name take the trouble to look into the reason for the rationing and restrictions at present obtaining in these islands. For eight years now we have maintained the British rationing system ever known and England's bonny babies bear witness to the fact that our successive food ministers—Lord Woolton, Ben Smith and John Strachey, have carried out a difficult job well. And, of course, to the astounding resourcefulness of the housewife who has not the time nor the wish to bemoan conditions. (Might I suggest that the fingernail trouble wasn't exactly due to the food? If Mr. Hooke ever deigns to return to England, I suggest he stays with me. I can guarantee him a healthy sojourn. Perhaps at the same time that in today's England young people are still fall in love, the sun still shines, folk are still kind, the birds sing and the trees are green. The invitation, needless to say, is open to all Albertans!

I'll close by reiterating that a very deep bond of friendship still exists between the old country and everyone over there including Mr. Hooke (in spite of himself).

Announcers Only Human

Editor, Bulletin—A radio announcer's job is to make himself understood, not to set himself up as a mincing and mealy-mouthed elocutionist. And thank God for that. If he were a truly gifted speaker of words he would be on the stage at a big wage, not on the air at a small one. Similarly, if his critics were genuine authorities on the language they would be writing good dictionaries instead of quoting bad ones.

Naturally, an announcer must meet a certain standard of literacy, and must also try to improve his diction. Most local announcers speak better than the man on the street and yet make the man on the street understand them. If they murder a word occasionally, that merely means they are members of the human race.

Indirect Cost Of Liquor

Editor, Bulletin — Recently when Britain's liquor bill was quoted as being £683,000,000, one correspondent advanced the point that at least the government benefitted from the taxes accruing.

But economists have repeatedly called attention to the fact that receipts from the manufacture and sale of liquor are not net receipts—that there are offsets consisting of the cost to the government (not the manufacturer) of caring for the consequences of the trade. The cost of repairing damage done to social welfare by crime police expense, industrial workers' loss of time and efficiency has been carefully estimated as requiring 89 cents out of every dollar.

This figure has been arrived at by observations over a wide field by the American Business Men's Research Foundation.

Way of Life Offends God

Editor, Bulletin—Perhaps our mounting difficulties are developing because our way of life is gradually becoming intolerably obnoxious to God, whom we have all but bowed out of our national and private lives.

Seeing that the majority of people have little use for Him, and have reduced the name of Jesus Christ His Son to the status of profanity, could we complain if He in turn should eventually bow us out of existence as a nation?

Undoubtedly there is something more than the "irony of fate" behind the marauding Russian bear and snapping jackals. The age-long cry "repent or perish" applies equally as well to the physical as to the spiritual.

Braund Should Be Encouraged

Editor, Bulletin—If Mr. Braund has a cure for cancer why is the world booing him down instead of congratulating him?

Quoting from what Braund said: (I will take my secret to my grave with me.) I don't think he really means this, but this rests on whether the world will change its attitude.

How about Sister Kenny? Most people ignored her too in her polio cure. Now her method is approved in most hospitals. Why give Braund the treatment first given to Sister Kenny?

Let's try to encourage this wonder-man and hope he really has defeated cancer.

Take Europe's Starving Children

Editor, Bulletin — Canadians and Americans were only too ready to offer their homes to children from the bombed out areas of Britain during the war. Now that same generous hospitality could save a lot of children in Europe from starvation, and they could come without fear of submarines.

In addition to asking every Canadian to contribute to the appeal for children, why not find out how many would be willing to take children from the hungry areas of Europe for a year or two, until the food situation is in hand?

The response during the war was largely from folks of English speaking background. In both Canada and the United States there are many families where one or another of the European languages is spoken. Many of these would be happy to open their homes from their mother countries.

Is the idea of starvation strong enough or do we need bombs and bullets actually drawing their blood to drive us to real action in behalf of these children?

The trainer sighed.

LOOKING BACKWARD

1888—60 Years Ago

Those who find so many specious reasons for doing away with the pre-emption right—who seemed to be galled to the heart if the farmer makes any money outside of hard work—should note that the choice is not at present between having two or four settlers on each or alternate sections, but is between placing all the land so that it may be squired by actual settlers altogether in by far the greater part of the country for an indefinite number of years. The proposition to reduce the attractions to settlers by withdrawing the pre-emption privilege while retaining half the whole area for purely speculative purposes by either the government or its pets, is so outrageous as not to be matter for argument.

Russians May Walk Into Palestine to Keep Peace

The Palestine question is in a pea-soup fog as far as the American attitude is concerned, and the President's statement on Thursday only deepened it. If carefully read, it means nothing. It calls for a truce—the truce that was found impossible before the partition plan was voted. It asks for a trusteeship — a substitute for the British mandate which the assembly vote destroyed—and suggests postponing partition but not abandoning it. It leaves open the whole matter of enforcement of peace in the midst of a guerilla war.

THOMPSON

Time marches on. The effect of not looking before we leaped does not mean that we didn't leap, or are where we started.

One effect of reversion has been to close the international Zionist ranks, and line up the moderate Chaim Weizmann with Rabbi Silver. The Jews will set up a Palestine state on May 16. Therefore, partition will occur. And anyone who knows Palestinian Jewry—the ardor, the devotion, the fanaticism, the sacrifices that have gone into the creation of the Jewish colonies, and the toughness of body and spirit engendered—knows that that state will be defended.

It cannot—in all probability—be defended in Jerusalem, the Negeb, or the Galilee provinces. But it can and will be defended in the coastal areas. These areas can be supplied by sea. Will, then, the United States, champion of partition and home of half the world's Jewry, see the Jews driven into the Mediterranean?

Will Russians Send Help?

And how about the Russians? In the meetings of the security council, where the U.S. creates a most embarrassing picture, the Russians are calm. For them the United Nations has spoken, the issue is settled, and they stand pat.

Behind the unwillingness of the U.S. to send troops to Palestine to enforce partition lies the dilemma that the Russians would be eligible to send them. We do not want the Red Army where it would pass right behind our troops in Turkey and Greece.

Thus the vacillation of American policy is due, not to fear of the Arabs, but to fear of taking a false and dangerous step that might bring to naught our entire foreign policy and turn the "cold" war into open conflict.

But what makes us think that the new Jewish state, if unsupported by America, will not—in extremis—appeal to the Soviets and that the Red Army will not march to their aid?

The only answer I can get from responsible government sources is: "That would mean war. We don't believe the Russians want war."

Yet every recent move of the Russians—especially those in Czechoslovakia, Finland, Norway, and the tremendous election campaign in Italy—is a war move. Occupation of the Middle East is essential to drive the U.S. from Europe and Asia.

The Russians, obviously, wish to harvest the fruits of a triumphant world war without committing a technical act of aggression.

If the Red Army marches into the Middle East, on the tail of departing British troops—which it could do with consummate ease, to enforce a UN decision promoted by the U.S.—would that be an act of aggression? Could they conceivably occupy the Arabian world on a better pretext or one which would more certainly divide the U.S.?

The Jewish agency does not want that solution, though there are within it powerful groups who do. But the Jewish state will certainly not go down without using every possible means.

And the U.S. cannot avoid a decision.

FROM TODAY'S NEWS

Senator Arthur Vandenberg, in urging quick United States Senate approval of $463,000,000 for China, described that unhappy country as "a major victim of that conspiracy of aggression which undermines the peace of the earth."

He was speaking of aggressive Communism, and he declared that the situation in China is "touch and go." This graphic estimate of the position will cause little surprise, since the general publics of western countries have been well aware that China was in desperate straits. However, it is an astonishing fact that many people still believe the fiction that the Chinese Reds aren't of the Russian brand but are merely agrarians who are fighting for their place in the sun.

Now that's a terribly dangerous error, since defense against the spread of Communism in the far east depends on recognition of the truth that the Chinese Communists follow the Muscovite pattern. The Chinese Reds, as I know from personal observation on the ground, have carefully spread the tale that they have nothing to do with the Soviet Union. However, the evidence is clear enough that they are working hand-in-glove with Russia.

This fact is distinct from the question of whether the vested interests of China have profiteered at the expense of the people. The hands of the vested interests are not clean—but that's another issue.

Speech Freedom In Canada Hit

Moscow Radio Claims Many Are Denied Free Expression

LONDON, March 31.—(CP)—Moscow Radio said Wednesday there is no freedom of speech or freedom of the press for an overwhelming majority in Canada.

"According to The Canadian Press, the Canadian delegation at the Geneva conference on freedom of the press and information intends to take a firm stand; but representatives of the Canadian government, one may suppose, will not tell the conference that in Canada freedom of speech and the press already do not exist for an overwhelming majority of the population," a commentator said.

PAPER BANNED

The broadcaster said the "Progressive" Montreal newspaper Le Combat, serving "almost a third of the population," has been banned and the "Association of Canadian Radio Industrialists" has "decreed not to admit Progressive (Communist) organizations to radio broadcasts."

The government of Quebec labelled Le Combat a Communist publication last month and closed it up.

The Soviet commentator said that all these activities deprived "the progressive working class" of an opportunity to take part in the elections.

VISA REFUSED

"In March the Canadian government refused an entrance visa to the leader of the British Communist Party, Harry Pollitt. In January the president of the Canadian Legion gave instruction to detachments of the Legion to exclude members whose political ideas were undesirable."

The commentator also alleged that there was "an offensive against the rights of trade unions," saying that a recent Prince Edward Island law prohibited trade unions in that province from affiliation with international trade unions and national trade union organizations.

MONTREAL, March 31.—(CP)—Pierre Gelinas, editor of the padlocked leftist weekly Combat, Wednesday disclosed he had asked that the newspaper's case be taken up at the international conference on freedom and information of the press at Geneva.

UN Palestine Session Looms

LAKE SUCCESS, March 31.—(AP)—Barring a Russian veto, the United States proposal for a special Palestine session of the United Nations assembly today appeared headed for acceptance.

One small-power delegate said he is convinced the assembly idea will get the necessary seven affirmative votes in the 11-member Security Council. Whether the Soviet Union will veto it is another matter.

If Russia does, the United States could have the 57 member-countries polled to have a special session called by a simple majority of 29. The veto does not apply in this method.

ADJOURNED ABRUPTLY

The council adjourned abruptly yesterday after hearing Warren R. Austin, United States delegate, and Soviet Delegate Andrei A. Gromyko. Its next meeting on Palestine is set for tomorrow afternoon. Then, votes may be taken on American appeals for a truce in the Holy Land and the special assembly.

Gromyko loosed a blistering attack on the United States, accusing Washington of sacrificing the UN partition project for oil and strategic military interests in the Middle East. He said it had not been proven, as held by the US, that partition could not be put through by peaceful means.

The stinging Soviet speech marked a formal break in the rare American-Russian agreement earlier on Palestine.

Campaign Opens For New Arena

the proposed arena would cost "approximately" $1,250,000. This figure was not a contractor's estimate but the result of a preliminary investigation of his own, he added.

He suggested sale of $100 "Baby Bonds" to the general public. As construction of the arena would take about three years, he said bonds could be purchased at 33 and one-third dollars per year.

The committee decided the first step is to contact persons in Saskatoon and Nelson where arenas were constructed through public subscription.

After this information has been obtained a second public meeting will be called to receive reports of the committee and plan future action.

CO-OPERATIVE PLAN

A co-operative plan such as proposed would knit all citizens together as partners in a great project, the alderman said. He said Nelson, Lethbridge and even Maple Leaf Gardens in Toronto were all constructed through similar means of financing.

Site of the new arena would be on the south side of Kingsway between 101 street and 109 street. The city would be asked to give the land only.

The proposed location would be well serviced by city transit system routes with auto traffic approaches on all directions and parking space on every side.

The building itself would have 70,000 square feet of seating accommodation. It would have a monolithic floor, permitting ice to be removed at will. Rink would be in form of two horseshoes with sliding aluminum doors, that would make possible operation of two sections simultaneously, for different sporting events. There would be four ticket entrances and eight fire escapes.

It would be used for many purposes besides hockey.

ALTERATIONS UNSOUND

Referring briefly to the recent announcement about enlargements and improvements to the Exhibition Association Arena, Ald. Parsons said such extensions were structurally unsound and would result only in making the building more vulnerable to disaster in case of fire or panic from other causes.

"I question if the proposed extensions have ever been discussed by a meeting of the exhibition board. I don't think they could show me the minutes," said Mr. Parsons, adding:

"The present arena will not suffice."

He congratulated those responsible for the Flyer hockey club's fine showing this year and predicted the team would win the Allan Cup.

A general discussion followed Ald. Parsons' outline of the new arena.

SOVIETS ORDER NEW CONTROLS

BERLIN, March 31.—(BUP)—Russia has sent a note to the three Western powers advising them that a new "control" measure will require a Soviet visa for persons and transport traveling through the Russian zone of Berlin, it was learned today.

It was understood that the ruling would apply only to Germans.

The British-licensed news service DPD reported that Germans traveling between Berlin and the Western zones would be required to have a Russian permit.

FAMOUS "SPOOK" DUE TO WALK

Ghost of Mrs. Copeland Welcome to This Spot

By WYN RHYDWEN

SABLE ISLAND, March 31.—(CP)—No ghost ever returned to a more lonely and desolate spot than did the ghost of Mrs. Copeland.

And according to the legend handed down from generation to generation of the small marine service staff, only residents of Sable Island, Mrs. Copeland's ghost is scheduled to make another visit to the 21-mile-long sand pile this year.

The story goes back more than 100 years when a small shipload of immigrants was wrecked on the treacherous shoals 90 miles east of the Nova Scotia mainland.

Only a few of the shipwrecked mariners and passengers survived the pounding surf. Mrs. Copeland—her Christian name has long since been forgotten—was one of them but she died shortly after her harrowing ordeal.

A greedy sailor—he was also an optimist who believed he could escape from the island—tried to steal the dead woman's wedding ring. When he couldn't remove it he hacked off the finger.

Regularly since then, according to the legend, the ghost of Mrs. Copeland has returned to Sable Island and drifted up and down the shifting sands looking for the ring and presumably for the sailor who stole it.

Since there are no cruises scheduled to this treacherous lump of sand, with its tentacle-like reefs stretching for 17 miles from either end, doubting Thomases must take the word of a reporter for the veracity of the spookiness at Sable.

The flotsam and jetsam, the half-buried hulks of ships, the abandoned homes and barracks of a few wartime personnel all add to the phantasy of the island whose clutching shoals have earned it the nickname of "Graveyard of the Atlantic"—the burial place for more than 40 ships.

Calgary Boy Dead Gunshot Wounds

CALGARY, March 31.—(CP)—Samuel McFayden, 14, of Calgary, died shortly after noon Tuesday from gunshot wounds received in a hunting accident on the northwest outskirts of the city earlier in the day.

Police said McFayden had been hunting with a friend and as they were returning home, McFayden's .22 calibre rifle discharged and the bullet entered his right side and lodged in his left chest.

The lyre bird is so called because of the shape of the tail which resembles the lyre—a musical instrument.

N.Y. BEAUTY IS FOUND SLAIN

NEW YORK, March 31.—(AP)—Mrs. Vera Lolita, attractive 35-year-old brunette, was found dead in her Manhattan apartment Tuesday, her chest slashed and a necktie knotted tightly around her neck.

Police said the woman, part owner of a travel agency, had been bound by the hands and feet, her clothing ripped and the apartment ransacked.

Her body was discovered by her husband, Robert, an insurance service manager, when he returned home late in the day, police said.

Wallace Sees 'False Crisis'

WASHINGTON, March 31.—(AP)—Henry A. Wallace said Tuesday the Truman administration created a "false crisis" and deliberately is leading the American people toward war.

"I charge an artificial crisis was deliberately manufactured to stampede Congress and the people into accepting universal military training and conscription," said Wallace.

The third party presidential candidate denounced administration policies in a 5,500-word statement prepared for the Senate armed services committee. The committee is hearing testimony for and against UMT and a temporary revival of the wartime draft to back the administration's new Halt-Russia policy.

Wallace's testimony was distributed to reporters several hours before Mr. Truman struck out anew Monday night at his ousted cabinet officer by suggesting that he go to Russia.

Among accusations the former vice-president levelled in his prepared statement at the president and his policy makers were these:

1. The current international crisis was "concocted" not only to promote big business, but also to stave off an economic crisis at home.

2. Forced labor for workers will result from a remobilization program.

Stilwell's Acid Words Come Alive in Diary

By Charles A. Grumich

NEW YORK, March 31.—(AP)—Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's own bitterly-worded thoughts on the top wartime politicians were published Tuesday. They showed his conviction in 1944 that the Chinese Communists offered the people a better deal than the government did and that Communists and Kuomintang troops should be fighting side by side against the Japanese instead of separately.

The thoughts he wrote down in his posthumously published private diaries were directed mainly against Chiang Kai-Shek, whom he usually called "The Peanut" and who eventually had the crusty old general fired out of China.

Stilwell did not spare the late President Roosevelt, his wartime commander-in-chief who agreed to Stilwell's recall from China at Chiang's bidding in 1944.

Stilwell called President Roosevelt "Old Softy" in one diary notation and suggested the wartime president was too much under Winston Churchill's influence. "Bloody Joe" was his name for Joseph Stalin after the 1943 Tehran conference of the Big Three which reversed the decision reached just previously in Cairo by Churchill, Roosevelt and Chiang to send material for a big war effort in Asia.

DIARIES PUBLISHED

The diaries are published in the April Ladies' Home Journal.

Stilwell wrote his opinion in 1944 that the Chinese Communists offered a better future to the people than did Chiang's Kuomintang. This was at a time Stilwell was trying to get Chiang to correlate the war efforts of Communist and government armies.

Both were fighting the Japanese with varying degrees of enthusiasm and effect and building up to what now has become a full-blown civil war in China.

QUESTION UNANSWERABLE

Wether Stilwell would think the same about Chinese Communists now is something that can't be answered. He died Oct. 12, 1946, at 63.

Stilwell had a low opinion of many military people, most of them British. In the way of a foot soldier, he thought American air forces commanders consistently over-rated their importance — except when they were making food drops to his jungle fighters.

Stilwell contended Britain never intended to fight a large-scale war in Burma, because she was confident she could win back Burma at the peace table. He accused Chinese and Britons of involved intrigues to keep from fighting in Burma.

Attempt Feared To Free Prisoner

TORONTO, March 31.—(CP)—A search of the Don jail was made Tuesday in what jail officials described as a "routine, periodic check-up." Nothing unusual was found.

The search coincided with rumors that an attempt might be made to free Max Beaver, convicted recently of illegal possession of narcotics.

Beaver's appeal from a four-year sentence was dismissed earlier Tuesday.

Consumer to Pay —But How Much?

Freight Rates to Boost Prices But Amounts Not Yet Certain

By John Leblanc

OTTAWA, March 31.—(CP)—How stiff a wallop will the railway freight-rate increase hit at the pocketbook of the man who foots the bill—the consumer? That's a tough one to answer—and probably no one can answer it immediately.

There's no doubt it will send the grocery bill up, and the fuel bill and the cost of running the family car.

But it's doubtful if anyone can say now how much of the $70,000,000 a year involved will be passed on to the man at the end of the line, though certainly he'll pay for a good chunk of it.

IMMEDIATE BOOST

One immediate boost, it appeared, would be in the price of coal. Dealers indicated they would pass along to the customer the whole of a 25-cents-a-ton increase ordered by the Board of Transport Commissioners.

The ultimate cost of practically all commodities was sure to go up by varying amounts. But just how much depended on a number of variables.

One of these was the extent to which the charges are absorbed between the producer and consumer.

Another was the extent to which the middlemen apply percentage markups—margin of profit.

A third aspect was the place where the consumer lives, since varying rail hauls will bring different increases in the cost of transport.

It looks as though the middleman—wholesaler, distributor, retailer, jobber—wouldn't lose on the deal, but the producer might have to share losses with the consumer.

Many producers goods—such as livestock, wheat and farm produce generally—are sold on a "delivered" basis.

That means the farmer foots the transportation charge to the nearest stockyard or distributing point—in the case of wheat, the head-of-the-lakes. So when freight rates go up, he would normally be expected to absorb the added charges on that first stage of the haul to the consumer.

Right now, it's regarded as impossible to tell how the laws of economics, of supply and demand, will work out in this case. It has been more than a quarter-century since Canada has had a freight-rate jump, and times have changed greatly.

CORN WHISKEY "KNOCKED" OUT

WASHINGTON, March 31.—(AP) — Representative Clare Hoffman of Michigan sniffed corn whisky in the European aid bill Tuesday.

That's what "corn derivatives" mentioned in the bill smelled like to him.

"We don't need to get them drunk to stop Communism," Hoffman shouted.

The house agreed. By voice vote it made the bill say that the United States won't ship corn whisky as part of the aid program.

Everybody Votes For Govt.—Or Else

BUCHAREST, March 31.—(Reuters)—Of the 8,400,000 voters on the Rumanian electoral lists, 7,000,000 voted for the government in Sunday's elections and 1,000,000 abstained, the Communist newspaper, "Romana Libera", said Tuesday.

The new parliament was said expected to consist of 405 government deputies and seven for the Liberal and Democratic Peasant parties.

The jerboa, a rat-sized rodent found in North Africa, resembles the kangaroo. The jerboa has oversized hind legs and can jump remarkable distances.

Benefit Assn. In B.C. Closing

VANCOUVER, March 31.—(CP)—The Employes Mutual Benefit Association, reporting liabilities of $83,295, announced Tuesday it would close. It has 6,000 members.

It is the third hospital-health society to suspend operations this year. The other two are the Union Health and Accident Association and the National Health Association.

The Employes Mutual Benefit Association's approved claims payable amounting to $52,219 and $8,589 estimated claims are in process of completion.

In supreme court Tuesday, Mr. Justice J. O. Wilson ordered the National Health Association, which had 12,855 members, wound up under supervision of the courts. J. D. Mathers of Vancouver was named liquidator.

During the hearing, Elmore Meredith, representing members, claimed that at a meeting March 15, when financial affairs were discussed, unauthorized persons voted. "A large number who were not members, including Tim Buck and Effie Jones, not only took part in the proceedings, but actually voted," he said.

Tim Buck, national leader of the Labor-Progressive party, was here on a speaking tour. Mrs. Jones was unsuccessful candidate in the 1947 mayoral election.

Toronto School Tax Rate Boosted

TORONTO, March 31.—(CP)—The total tax rate for public school supporters here this year will be 38.5 mills. City council Tuesday approved the rate as it adopted the $51,000,000 budget recommended last week by the city board of control. Increased education requirements forced an increase from last year of 4 mills.

RCAF IS CHECKING ON RESERVE OFFICERS

OTTAWA, March 31.—(CP)—The RCAF is asking officers, automatically placed on the list of reserves at the end of the war, if they wish to remain on the reserve list, it was learned Tuesday.

An air force source said that when the war ended officers when discharged were automatically placed in "Class E" of the reserve. Letters now are being mailed to find out if they wish to remain in the reserve.

If they volunteer to remain their names will be kept on the list. Otherwise they will be dropped.

There was no special significance to the move, he said. The force simply did not wish to have on hand a lengthy list of reserve officers and then find in a time of emergency that a large number of the men were not available, either because of death or because of movements about the country.

Preserving Liberty Said Task For All

TORONTO, March 31. —(CP)—Teachers, clergy, the press, business and industry and the average citizen must share the responsibility of preserving liberty, Dr. G. Fred McNally, chancellor of the University of Alberta, yesterday told a mass meeting of delegates to the 88th annual convention of the Ontario Educational Association.

"If business and industry insist on unreasonable profits, refuse to share with those who make such returns possible, and assume no responsibility for the welfare of their employes and those dependent on them, they can be assured that they are contributing more to the production of Communists than all the speeches of all the demagogues this country ever heard," Dr. McNally said.

"As intelligent citizens we have two difficult problems which we must face," he said. "The first is that of military preparedness and the second is compulsory military training."

Consul Attacked, Goes to Washington

WASHINGTON, March 31.—(AP)—The state department said Tuesday it has requested John Bankhead, United States consul at Windsor, Ont., to come here for consultation about attempts that have been made to kill him.

Bankhead has reported he was fired upon twice Sunday night as he drove to his home in Windsor. He said that earlier poisoned liquor and candy had been sent to him.

Members of the house committee on un-American activities reported Monday that Bankhead recently had given a subcommittee valuable secret testimony. The committee said it had asked the justice department to provide him with special protection.

Ace Dog Derby Driver Dead

THE PAS, Man., March 31.—(CP)—Old-time rivals of the dog derby trail stood with bowed head Tuesday as a casket containing the body of Emile St. Godard, once the monarch of mushing, was lowered into a grave at the Lakeside cemetery in this northern Manitoba mining town.

Among those who attended funeral and burial services was Earl Brydges of Flin Flon, Man., the man who brought an end to St. Godard's string of victories years ago in the famous Pas Derby. St. Godard, who died here last Friday at the age of 42, had won the event five times in succession before Brydges emerged as the winner in the 1930 race.

Solemn Requiem High Mafs was sung in the Sacred Heart Cathedral here for the man who was known throughout Canada and much of the United States two decades ago for his sled-dog racing activities. He competed in many races in the New England states.

Yukon Veteran Dies in Ireland

BELFAST, March 31.—(AP)—Patrick William Raffles, 92, who participated in the Klondike gold rush in 1898, died Tuesday at his birthplace in Downpatrick. He was one of the first settlers of the gold mining centre which later became Dawson City.

Raffles and his partner, Patrick McCormick, travelled six months by dogteam in the 1898 rush to the Klondike. They operated a small mine near Dawson City before returning to Ireland in 1915.

Fiji's first humane society clinic was officially opened at Lautoka recently.

GUS (THE GREEK) MAKES GOOD

Former Dishwasher Buys Entire Town for $500,000

LANGELOTH, Pa., March 31.—(AP)—This once-bustling community of 3,000 was rescued from a "ghost town" fate yesterday by Gus (The Greek) Barbush, who as an immigrant boy got his start by washing dishes 36 years ago.

Gus saved Langeloth by the simple process of buying it—the whole town—for a reported $500,000.

The town's troubles began when the American Zinc and Chemical Company decided to close its local zinc plant. The major industry here, it provided 800 jobs and a $2,000-a-day payroll. Officials explained the company's process was obsolete and the plant wasn't worth rebuilding.

Things looked pretty gloomy until Gus surveyed the scene. Gus lives in nearby Burgettstown, where as a lad of 13 he got his first dishwashing job. Working hard and saving his money, he built his original $7 into a small fortune. At Burgettstown he owns a large country store, a large restaurant, and a hotel building with a half dozen stores.

Gus thought he might put Langeloth on its feet. He went to the Burgettstown bank, which showed its faith in him by advancing a $200,000 loan—largest it ever advanced to an individual.

With the loan, Gus had little difficulty in buying the 350-acre property of the Zinc company, which includes 261 houses, a water company, community hall, church, school, scout hut, sportsmen's clubhouse, park, and incidentals.

Gus's main objective is to induce a new industry to move into the empty plant. Then he wants to improve the town by laying out a baseball diamond, fixing the park, and similar projects.

"My plan is to run a good town," he said.

Gus admits he got a kick out of buying the town.

"It could only happen in this country," he smiled.

EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH

Ilsley Warns Against Any Weakness by West

WINNIPEG, March 31.—(CP)—Weakness of any kind on the part of western nations, whether military, social or economic, would merely aggravate the present critical world situation, Justice Minister J. L. Ilsley warned last night.

But in an address at a public meeting, he said the present tension between east and west need not necessarily continue.

"It arises from fear on the part of the west and perhaps fear on the part of the east. Our fear is of this creeping Communist aggression, which is subtle, ingenious and insidious . . . the west is afraid that, despite the announced abolition of the Communist international in 1943, it is still in effect alive.

CITES OPPOSITE VIEW

"On the other hand, we must remember that part of the Communist fanaticism arises from a belief instilled from childhood that the capitalist system inevitably begets economic crises followed by wars of imperialistic aggression.

"Under these circumstances, it seems to me that the western nations have several clear duties. Knowing as we do that there is not a single western nation that has aggressive intentions, we should express and conduct ourselves in such a way as to make that fact clear.

"But there is not much use in being non-aggressive ourselves unless we remain strong. Weakness of any kind, whether military, social or economic, would merely aggravate the present situation. So we must maintain forces and facilities of abundant strength to make offensive operations against us impracticable, from whatever motive undertaken."

SPEEDING CHASE RECOVERS CAR

TORONTO, March 31.—(CP)—A five-mile chase of 80 miles an hour ended at gunpoint in suburban Leaside Tuesday when two policemen forced a stolen automobile to the curb.

They said an 18-year-old youth jumped from the car but surrendered when one constable pulled a revolver. A 15-year-old girl, clutching a two-year-old baby in her arms, was in the car.

Sask. Solon Blasts CCF

VANCOUVER, March 31.—(CP)—Lt.-Col. A. W. Embury, armed services representative in the Saskatchewan legislature, charged Tuesday that Saskatchewan's CCF government has abolished the old-line "party patronage" system but instead has gone directly to the provincial treasury for its "propaganda" funds.

He told the Bracken Club that the Douglas government, "behind a smoke-screen of commendable educational, health and social service activities," was carrying on a "vicious" attempt to perpetuate a totalitarian form of government.

It established a "living newspaper", which ran for more than a year and followed the straight Communist party line until "it got so hot the government had to drop it."

He said Dyson Carter, "an acknowledged Communist," was hired to write a pamphlet titled "Atomic Future," the ideas in which, if carried out, would be enough to paralyze the future of the whole country.

No Council Meeting Called By Soviets

BERLIN, March 31. — (BUP) — Soviet Marshal Bassily Sokolovsky neglected to call a meeting of the Allied Control Council Tuesday, apparently passing the initiative for resumption of Four-power government of Germany to Gen. Lucius D. Clay.

Meetings normally are held on the 10th, 20th and 30th of each month. The Allied Secretariat met for less than one hour Tuesday morning, with no Russian move to resume meetings.

Under a rotation system the chairmanship of the council passes to Clay in April.

Governor-General Plans West Tour

OTTAWA, March 31. — (CP) — Viscount Alexander, governor-general, and Viscountess Alexander will leave April 29 on a month-long tour of Western Canada, Government House revealed Tuesday. They will arrive in Winnipeg May 1 for a two-day visit, and then go to Brandon, Moose Jaw, Lethbridge, Nelson, B.C., Victoria, Vancouver, Kamloops, and Saskatoon.

Spain to Fight Italy Red Menace

Army To Be Increased By 300,000 Men Is Report

By Alburn D. West

MADRID, March 31.—(AP)—Generalissimo Franco's regime was reported Tuesday ready to increase the Spanish army by about 300,000 men as a precautionary step in view of the Communist threat in Europe, especially Italy.

There is no official information available on such plans. It was reported however that the 1948 and 1949 classes may be called to the colors several months ahead of time.

(No information is available as to the present strength of the Spanish army. However, Spain is divided into eight military districts, with a nominal organization of 19 divisions. There is also an independent cavalry division in Madrid and five additional infantry divisions in Spanish Morocco. It is not known whether these units are at full strength.)

The cabinet at its last meeting March 22 is known to have given much attention to the report of Jose Antonio San Gronez, Spanish ambassador in Rome. An informed source said the report described the situation as "very grave" and that the cabinet took the "necessary measures."

A communique after the meeting said the ministers received a report on "the advance of Communism in Europe."

MACHINERY READY

The machinery for calling up the class of 1948 is already in motion under Spain's two-year compulsory military service law.

Official Spanish sources maintained a guarded silence on reports that Myron Taylor, the White House ambassador to the Vatican, is coming to confer with Franco Thursday.

Taylor is reported due when 500,000 Spaniards are scheduled to be watching a "victory day" parade of 12,000 soldiers, sailors and police in Madrid on the anniversary observance of the end of the civil war in 1939.

It is reported Taylor also will confer with Foreign Minister Alberto Martin Artajo, and Enrique Cardinal Pla y Deniel, primate of Spain, during his visit.

Rotary Governors To Meet in Quebec

QUEBEC, March 31.—(CP)—District governors of Rotary International for 1948-49—about 650 strong and representing some 50 countries will meet in Quebec the week of April 24-May 2, it was announced here yesterday.

An official of the local club described the affair as a form of school for incoming district governors held each year prior to Rotary International's annual convention which this year will be held in Rio de Janeiro in June.

Prince Philip Begins Six-Month Course At Naval College

LONDON, March 31.—(CP)—Prince Philip Tuesday began a six-month course at the Royal Naval Staff College, Greenwich, with no more excitement than if he were "just plain Lieutenant Smith."

"Was there any demonstration? Certainly not," said an austere voice in the commandant's office. "This is not a theatrical establishment."

Princess Elizabeth now becomes a "navy widow," since the officers on the course must live in at the college. However the couple will have week-ends and occasional evenings together.

Jail Fire Is Part Of Escape Attempt

OWEN SOUND, Ont., March 31.—(CP)—A fire in Grey County jail Monday was part of an escape attempt by a prisoner awaiting trial for murder, jail authorities said Tuesday.

They identified him as Arthur Hooey, 25-year-old Owen Sound man accused of the knife slaying of his childhood buddy, Allan Crowe, 22.

Guatemala Again Asks Withdrawal Of British Troops

GUATEMALA, March 31.—(AP)—Guatemala repeated yesterday her formal protest to Britain against the sending of troops to British Honduras recently. She asked immediate withdrawal of the British forces.

Guatemala has claimed British Honduras for a century. Britain sent troops and warships recently after certain sections of the Guatemalan press suggested the Guatemalans take action toward annexing the territory.

The new note said Guatemala is willing, like Britain, to submit the dispute to the international court of justice but added that Guatemala is not interested in arbitration so long as British armed forces remain on territory claimed by Guatemala.

STREET-CAR BLAZE

FARM POSTS SOUGHT FOR GIRL REFUGEES

OTTAWA, March 31.—(CP)—Detailed plans are being worked out for the placement of young women from displaced persons camps of Europe in Canadian farm homes as domestics, Arthur MacNamara, deputy minister of labor, said yesterday.

The plans, which call for the payment of a minimum of $35 a month to the girls, are being worked out in co-operation with the provincial ministers of agriculture.

The number to be brought to Canada would be determined by requests received from the Dominion-provincial farm labor committees.

The first of the girls may reach Canada within six or 10 weeks, said Mr. MacNamara.

CCF Government's Record Seen Issue In Sask. Election

REGINA, March 31. — (CP) — Henry Mang, Liberal candidate for Lumsden, provincial constituency, said last night the record of Saskatchewan's CCF government would be the main issue in the next general election.

Since assuming office, the CCF had increased the costs of government from approximately $30,000,000 to $60,000,000 a year, he said in an address.

More than $6,000,000 of this had gone into crown corporations, and despite no interest was paid on this amount, these industries had not even made a profit of $600,000.

New Technique In Photography

John Brownlee Studio Offers Modern Art

The old school Main Street photographer, crippled by makeshift equipment and hide-bound by conservative theories and ideas is out—according to John E. Brownlee, graduate of Art Centre School, Los Angeles, and manager of the new John E. Brownlee studios at 10722 124 street.

JOHN E. BROWNLEE
Manager John E. Brownlee Studios

Mr. Brownlee further states that an all-out effort is going to be made, by his photography centre at any rate, to keep the old idea out!

"It's going to be my aim to get away from the frusty kind of photography where the subject sits on a stool and smirks," Mr. Brownlee said this week.

"We can give the Edmonton public a fresher outlook towards photography, both portrait and commercial."

GOOD TRAINING

Jack Brownlee backs up his theories with the practical knowledge that makes Hollywood photography a well-recognized commodity.

Training in the photographic arts under stellar cameraman in "Flickerville" did the trick. Clarence Bull of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios; James N. Doolittle, publicity photographer of movie stars; Will Connell, author of feature articles in U.S. camera publications; Fred Dapprich, architectural photographer; Otto Halmer, expert in photographic techniques; Edward B. Kaminski, creative art and composition; and Albert King, Hollywood color specialist.

"I'm offering something new in local photography," Mr. Brownlee says. "I'm going to use typical Hollywood lighting, Kliegs and booms, unusual backgrounds and effects, to get away from old-time standards." His studio in the West End is packed to the rafters with modern equipment to do the job.

NEW DEALER

Under the banner of "Alberta Photo and Art Supplies," the John E. Brownlee Studios is authorized dealer for Dupont Defender Photo Products, which includes photographic papers, films and chemicals, Dupont 8-8 mm., 16 mm. and 35 mm. motion picture film, all making its appearance in the West for the first time. The same line of products will be used exclusively in Mr. Brownlee's own studio work.

It is the intention also to carry a full line of art supplies, building up various side-lines in the field as the demand increases.

LOCAL MAN

Brought up in Edmonton and educated at Garneau public and high school, Jack Brownlee hopes to make his studio an unofficial community photographic centre.

"We would like to organize discussion groups, among amateur photographers who patronize our business and, under supervision, to open the studio certain evenings each week for a study of the modern equipment we possess," he explained. It was possible, he added, that the same idea could be worked out for art groups.

MODERN, UP-TO-THE-MINUTE studios of John E. Brownlee offers Edmontonians the best in photography. The interior of the new establishment gives some idea of the latest equipment purchased by Mr. Brownlee for his business.

3 Killed, 30 Hurt In Bomb Outrage

MANILA, March 31.—(AP)—Governor Gregorio Santayana of Quezon province Tuesday reported three women were killed and 30 persons wounded by a grenade tossed into a crowd at a high school celebration. ## B.C. Government Wants Federal Aid

Lake Ships Prepare For First Voyages

16 Japanese Claims Slated For Hearing

MOOSE JAW, Sask., March 31.—(CP)—Mr. Justice Henry I. Bird of Vancouver will hear 16 claims for damages filed by Japanese Canadian residents of the Japanese relocation centre at hearings of the Japanese Claims Commission April 6 to 9, it was learned Tuesday.

The claims are for losses allegedly suffered by the Japanese when the Canadian government took over their property at the outbreak of war with Japan.

Acme of Service Radio Labs' Aim

Veteran Partners Proud Of New Business Stand

Visitors to the new quarters of Radio Labs, 10722 124 street, radio and electric appliance sales and service dealers, will not be confronted by vast piles of merchandise.

There will not be gleaming heaps of gadgets on every side—and further, there will not be shelf-loads of stock reaching from floor to ceiling!

Sales manager H. R. Whitefoot and service manager W. R. Small offer no apologies for the above-noted lacks. According to Mr. Whitefoot, "we're going to keep our floor space and counter area clear."

NEW STYLE

So, in place of the the great heaps of merchandise, there will be neatly-arrayed counters of representative stock, easily found by the busy shopper who has something to buy.

"Our idea is to save the customer time", Mr. Whitefoot continues. "In this way, we can do not only that but make shopping much more convenient in every way."

The new premises mark the third year of growth for Radio Labs.

Last January the business marked its second birthday as a partnership between the two war veterans, Whitefoot and Small.

Mr. Small was a radio technician and "ham" wireless operator in Winnipeg prior to the war.

During this time, Mr. Whitefoot was training in his chosen field in Minneapolis, and finding himself a footing in Edmonton, a city which appealed to him at first sight.

Both served in the RCAF's radio branch during the war, for about 63 months each, in Canada and overseas.

CITY DEALERS

Currently Radio Labs is dealer for the complete Westinghouse line, de Forest radios and record players, Motorola and Philco car radios and in addition the partners are authorized Philco service agents.

"We intend to provide a good, all-round service in all electrical fields," Mr. Whitefoot said this week. "We guarantee a 48-hour service except where circumstances make it impossible."

The new store is up-to-date in every respect, a claim that is thrown open for public verification by the genial invitation to "come in and look around anytime."

EXCLUSIVE

Attention is drawn in particular to the Edmonton-exclusive musical chair arrangement in the modern record bar.

This latter feature offers prospective record-buyers the opportunity of listening to favorite recordings without the discord provided by someone else listening to an entirely different record. Only in the "musical chair" can the recording be heard properly, regardless of other recordings being played elsewhere in the store.

"We're proud of Radio Labs," the partners say. "We think Edmonton will be pleased with our service."

W. R. SMALL
Service Manager, Radio Labs.

Only Single LPP Candidate Planned In Saskatchewan

REGINA, March 31.—(CP)—The Labor-Progressive party will nominate only one candidate in the next Saskatchewan election, Nelson Clarke, provincial leader, said Tuesday night.

Although the party was not entirely satisfied with the CCF government, it could see "no hope" of progress in the event of a Liberal victory," he said.

(William Berezowski has been nominated as LPP candidate in Pelly constituency. Premier T. C. Douglas has said the CCF did not "want or need" LPP support in the election.)

Henry Martell Quits Amateur Ranks Today

Henry Martell will ring down the curtain on a brilliant amateur golf career Wednesday afternoon, E. E. (Pem) Wood, manager of the Highlands Club, announced Tuesday night.

Providing Henry doesn't change his mind in the meantime, said Wood, he'll sign a contract Wednesday to take over the duties of professional at the Highlands, where he has played most of his golf.

For more than a decade Martell has dominated golf in Alberta and in 1946 stroked his way to the Canadian crown. Previously he had reached the Dominion final and won the Ontario open. He was a semi-finalist in the Canadian amateur last year.

Bus Jones' Rink Cops Mixed 'Spiel

W. S. "Bus" Jones' rink captured Primary laurels as the curtain dropped on Granite Club's annual mixed bonspiel. In copping major honors, Jones knocked over Bill Holman's quartet 9-7 in a thrill-packed battle.

Secondary honors went to the Jack Lammie foursome, which eked out a narrow 13-12 decision over Don Stewart's crew. Homer Delemeter swept to victory in Consolation event by dumping Dr. V. S. Kaufman 12-8.

Personnel of Primary winners were Bus Jones, skip, Mrs. B. F. Robertson, third, E. M. Hall, second, Mrs. B. Petiep, lead. Holliman's rink was made up of Mrs. Ed. Perry, third, Carl Rolf, second, and Mrs. Carl Rolf, lead.

Secondary winners were Jack Lammie, skip, Mrs. R. T. Aptwood, third, Wally Worth, second, Miss Lillian Steffes, lead. Runners-up were Don Stewart, skip, Mrs. T. Sheppard, third, Ernie Stephens, second, Mrs. M. Powers, lead.

Delameter's rink consisted of Mrs. Graeme Smith, third, B. McLafferty, second, Mrs. Delevers, lead. Dr. Kaufman skipped the runner-up rink, while Mrs. J. A. Kenny played third, A. Stetcher, second and Mrs. Daly was lead-off.

South Side Club To Get 'New Deal'

A new deal for South Side Athletic Club was made clearly visible by enthusiasm shown by the new executive at first executive meeting of the newly organized club Monday night. New president Earl Graham was in the chair.

Executive, composed of 15 members, discussed several new ideas and there is every indication that future success is assured.

New executive is composed of the following: Don McCannel, past-president; Earl Graham, president; Stan Suss, first vice-president; Archie Anderson, second vice-president; Ed King, treasurer; Bill Haddad, secretary; Ted West, finance director; Tom Green, hockey director; Cec. Caldwell, baseball; Monty Ford, fastball and property manager; Herb Joslin, Charlie Scanlan, Frank Cowles, Gus Brunless and Jack Hanks, dicetors. Membership cards may be obtained from any of these men.

Tennis Meeting

Annual meeting of the season of Park Tennis Club will be held at USO Hall Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All members are urged to attend. Main topic of discussion will be arranging for adequate playing space.

Murray Dickson Sets No-Hit, No-Run Mark

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 31.—(BUP) — Dinky Murry Dickson of the St. Louis Cardinals became the first pitcher to turn in a complete no-hit, no-run game in major league spring training history Tuesday and he did it the hard way, double-blanking the mighty world champion New York Yankees, 7-0.

Dickson, getting off to a seven-run lead in the first inning when Cardinal hitters went wild, struck out six batters, walked five and hit one.

It was the first no-hitter involving major league teams since last Aug. 3 when Bill McGahan of the Philadelphia A's turned the trick against the Washington Senators. And it was the first time that the Yankees had been double-blanked since the great Bobby Feller did it in Yankee Stadium on April 30, 1946.

Ironically, the Cardinals got their big first inning margin off Floyd (Bill) Bevens, the big Yankee hurler who came within one out and one pitch of turning in the only no-hitter in World Series history against the Brooklyn Dodgers last fall.

But big Bev had to sit by disconsolately Tuesday for he went out in the riotous opening inning in which he re-injured the pitching arm and ankle that he hurt in a game on March 12, his last mound appearance.

Bevens said in the clubhouse that his arm and shoulder had gone bad with the first hard pitch and he wanted to take three weeks off to go either to Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore or to baseball's noted surgeon, Dr. Robert F. Hyland in St. Louis.

Bevens, a 155-pounder who spent so much time on bull pen duty in the last two seasons that he could have won a ribbon in any livestock show in the country, is being counted on this year as one of Manager Eddie Dyer's top starters. And after Tuesday's performance it looked as if he might be the ace of the staff.

Buffalo Reaches Calder Cup Final

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 31.—(AP)—Buffalo Bisons easily skated into the finals of the American Hockey League Calder Cup playoffs Tuesday night by defeating New Haven Ramblers 6-2.

Freddie Hunt paced the Bisons with a pair of goals while the others were tallied by George Pargeter, Hal Laycoe, Murdo McKay and Tom Cooper. Chick Webster and Dunc Fisher netted New Haven goals.

Curling Popular

FLIN FLON, Man., March 30. — (CP)—Curling certainly ranks as the most popular sport in this northern Manitoba mining town.

The figure filberts estimated that 28,810 individuals took part in curling contests here this winter, a total somewhere around three times the town's population.

Mrs. Mowbray had too much on the broom for the Chillibeck foursome in the primary. Curling at a steady clip, she breezed to a 6-2 margin after seven ends, and then cut loose with a four-ender in eighth.

Mrs. Chillibeck fought back stubbornly, counting four on the tenth, but Mrs. Mowbray pulled a nifty shot for another four on the eleventh. That was all for Mrs. Chillibeck.

Keen action marked the Secondary event. Mrs. Hollingsworth's crew shot into what appeared a substantial 9-3 lead after eight ends, but the determined Brown fought back with a three on the ninth.

THRILLING FINISH

Mrs. Hollingsworth scored one on the 10th, but her opponent was right back in the 11th with two. It wasn't until the last rock was heaved in the 12th, that Mrs. Hollingsworth was sure of victory.

Another thriller came in the "Hard Luck" semi-final event. Mrs. J. Meridith of Thistle got the green light into the final, but not before a gruelling match with Mrs. K. "Peg" Saunders of Edmonton. Both were tied at 7-7 coming home, with Mrs. Meridith sinking the clincher in the 10th.

Winners will be pitted against Mrs. Christenson of Edmonton in "Hard Luck" final Wednesday.

Personnel of Primary winners were Mrs. Mowbray, skip, Mrs. G. McMurray, third, Mrs. S. Embleton, second, Mrs. B. Hannah, lead. Mrs. Chillibeck's rink made up of Mrs. D. Chalmers, third, Mrs. M. Hutchison, second, Mrs. A. Howey, lead.

THOSE WHO THINK four players are necessary on a curling rink, take note: The three ladies left to right, Mrs. William Bull, Mrs. H. C. # Mowbray Rink Cops Honors At City Ladies' Bonspiel

Mrs. W. D. Mowbray's Alberta Avenue rink swept to victory in primary event of the first city ladies' bonspiel at Granite rink Tuesday evening. Mrs. Mowbray was awarded the original Challenge Cup when she defeated Mrs. M. Chillibeck's Edmonton quartette 16-7 in the final match.

But the Secondary final was another story. Mrs. H. Hollingsworth's Granite foursome emerged winner over Mrs. N. T. Brown, Royal, after a nip-and-tuck battle right to the last end. Score was 10-8.

SEMI-FINALS

Semi-finals in the primary Monday saw the Mowbray rink oust Mrs. W. R. Howson, Granite, and Mrs. Chillibeck defeat Mrs. Flint. In Secondary fours, Mrs. Brown sidelined Mrs. Cottrell, Granite, and Mrs. Hollingsworth derailed Mrs. J. O. Mercer, Edmonton.

ROLLING 'THE BONES' MAY BE SOLUTION

BOSTON, March 31.—(AP)—There will be one Chinese runner in the annual Boston AA marathon April 19—if the club can provide Wong Chen Ling with a pair of shoes.

BAA president Tom Kanaly Tuesday received a letter with tracings of Wong's feet. Also included was such pertinent information as the height of the orientals avoirdupois.

The missive requesting the shoes was signed by Wong's trainer, Chen Soh Foh Yu.

The pair are staying at San Francisco where they requested that the shoes, if available, be sent.

Austerity Era Kayoes British Fox-Hunting

By John Capreol

LONDON, March 31.—(Reuters)—Fox-hunting, one of the traditional sports of England which created £10,000,000 ($40,000,000) worth of business annually before the war, today is fast dying out to become one more memory of a more leisurely past.

The most popular and fashionable exercise of British gentry is a reminder of the fact that Britain's dress, attitude and tastes are changing.

NOT INTERESTED

Most Britons of today are not interested in this sport which has been in recorded existence since 1660 when the first known pack of hounds was let loose by a Viscount Lowther. Besides, it now is too expensive for even most of the well-to-do.

All sorts of difficulties in the post-war austerity era have presented themselves to endanger the sport which before the war directly employed 20,000 people. There is the shortage of labor, the shortage of fodder for horses and meat for the hounds, the shortage of clothing coupons for hunting pink or the uniform of a particular pack.

Hunters used to turn out in black hunting coat, silk sat, white buckskin breeches, proper hunting boots and spurs. In the old days the master of the hunt did not hesitate to order a person off if he were not properly dressed.

Nowadays the few who do still ride to hounds think nothing at all of appearing in old grey flannels or discarded battle dress tunics which would have scandalized a master of old.

Grand Challenge

WILLINGDON, March 31.—Dr. Lazaruk's rink captured the Grand Challenge of the Willingdon mixed bonspiel held here recently. Assisting Dr. Lazaruk were S. Samoil (2nd), A. S. Downey (3rd) and M. Fraser (lead).

Bank of Commerce cup was won by H. C. Reeves, with J. Wooley's rink placing second. Consolation honors went to G. Kolotyluk.

Hamilton Tigers Quit Grid Union

HAMILTON, March 31—(CP)—Hamilton Tigers Tuesday night confirmed an Ottawa report they have withdrawn from the Interprovincial Rugby Football Union.

(At Ottawa, E. K. (Eddy) Emerson, league president, said Tigers' place will be taken by Hamilton Wildcats and Tigers will not play football next fall.)

The decision to act on a move made at the league's annual meeting at Ottawa a week ago Saturday was reached Tuesday following a meeting of the Tigers' executive and club governors.

Soccer Meeting

North Side Legion soccer team, which breezed to provincial honors last season, will hold a meeting in the Memorial Hall at 8 p.m. Wednesday night. All last year's players and others interested are urged to attend.

Confident Flyers Speeding Home to Resume Series

By STAN MOHER
Bulletin Sports Editor

NELSON, B.C., March 31—Edmonton Flyers, champions of the Western Canada Hockey League, and Trail Smoke Eaters, reigning of the West Kootenay loop, left Nelson by special train at 6:00 p.m. Tuesday bound for Edmonton.

Best-of-seven Western Canada Allan Cup semi-final series resumes in the Alberta capital Thursday night. Flyers, off 8-3 and 4-1 triumphs, hold a two-game edge at this stage and are heavy favorites to advance into the Western finals.

Originally scheduled to leave on the regular run at 5:45, new plans had to be worked out when it was found that trains from the west are running eight to nine hours late because of snowslides back in the mountains.

Frank Currie, manager-coach of the Edmonton aggregation, swung into action and managed, through the kind co-operation of CPR officials, to get a special placed at the disposal of the teams.

Barring unforseen difficulties both Flyers and their opponents will arrive in Edmonton Wednesday night.

FLYERS CONFIDENT

Flyers exude quiet confidence at this stage of their multiple test against the Smokies. The WCHL titlists have twice handled with ease the best shots of Ab Cronie's scrappy Trail squad. Now that the scene of action shifts to their own back yard they see no reason for being down-hearted about their chances of eventually flashing with the winner of the Fort Frances-Winnipeg series.

Edmonton's first serious Allan Cup threat since the days of Ira Stuart's Superiors of the early 1930's made a fine impression on Kootenay district fans. Flyers will be welcomed back anytime they return.

While in Nelson the team put up at the Hume hotel, proprietor Jack Moss, former president of the Alberta Hockey Association as well as sparkplug behind intermediate clubs in Gleichen and Vegreville.

Moss plans to catch Flyers, again, as he puts it, "in the Allan Cup finals at Calgary and Edmonton."

SMOKIES YOUNG

In Smoke Eaters Edmonton fans will see a generally young team, particularly when the forwards are concerned, with a sprinkling of veterans like Coach Cronie, Jimmy Anderson, "Red" Sutherland and Les Christenson at the defence posts.

"Duke" Scodellaro, long one of the country's better netminders outside the pro ranks, wears the big pads for the smelter crew.

The contests in Edmonton will be in the nature of a homecoming for Terry Cavanagh and Jimmy Anderson. The pair learned more than the rudiments of the puck game in Edmonton juvenile and junior circles before breaking away for greener pastures.

Both Cavanagh and Anderson played well in the first two games.

Doug Lane, Louis, Holmes and Gordon Buttrey, Flyer utility men who have not seen action in the series so far, are primed for a real effort if an opportunity presents itself.

Also returning on the special will be referees Lyndon and Ost. Gordon McDonald, chairman of the Flyer hockey committee, officials of the Trail team and assorted newspapermen and sports casters.

Rangers Clip Wings To Square Playoffs

NEW YORK, March 31.—(CP)—New York Rangers drew abreast of Detroit in the Stanley Cup playoffs by topping the Red Wings 3-1 Tuesday night before 15,772 fans in Madison Square Gardens. Both teams have won two games in the best-of-seven National Hockey League post-season series.

Retaining their unbeaten record against Detroit in home play-off games, Rangers scored twice within 37 seconds of the second period to take over the lead and Tony Leswick notched the clincher midway through the third.

Claude (Chuck) Rayner made 31 saves for New York compared to 20 for Harry Lumley to force the series to at least two more games. The teams meet again at Detroit Thursday and New York Sunday.

The underdog Rangers won 3-2 Sunday after taking 2-1 and 5-2 defeats in the first two games of the series.

FAILED TO CLICK

Rangers failed to click in the first period when Jim McFadden scored his third goal and fifth point of the series to put Detroit into a 1-0 lead.

But the home team came to life at 10:07 of the second session when Bryan Hextall smashed a Detroit goal past Lumley on assists from veteran Phil Watson and Buddy O'Connor. Shortly thereafter Ed Kullman drifted in on a set-up by Edgar Laprade and beat the Detroit goalie from 10 feet out.

Leswick's third goal was his second of the series. He broke into the clear when rookie Fred Shero slipped him a pass at centre ice and the little left-winger slipped the puck under Lumley.

SEVEN PENALTIES

Only seven penalties were handed out in the tussle with Detroit apparently failed to receive the boost expected of the retention of star left-winger Jim Conacher who had been on "a rest" for the third game of the series.

Most costly penalty was that handed out to Ted Lindsay for tripping in the second period. The lefty winger was off when Hextall scored his tying goal and had only returned to action 24 seconds before Kullman tallied what proved to be the winning marker.

LINE-UPS

Detroit — Lumley, Quackenbush, Stewart, Abel, Howe, Lindsay, Subs: Reise, Gauthier, Horeck, Schmidt, Mc-Fadden, D. Morrison, Conacher, Pavelich, Kelly, R. Morrison.

John Galvin Named Cubs' Playing Coach

Johnny Galvin, popular baseball star in these parts with the U.S. Army Yanks and the Edmonton Cardinals, has been appointed playing manager of the Edmonton Motors club of the Big Four League, it was announced Tuesday night by Frank Wolfe, the team's sponsor.

A colorful shortstop and batter, Johnny led the Cards to the provincial championship in 1946. Last season he played class A ball for Denver and came up with a respectable .280 batting average.

Galvin is more than an ordinary performer on the gridiron, too. He played football for the Baltimore Colts in the All-American Conference last fall and was the third leading punter in the circuit. A triple threat, he was a high-grade plunger and ball carrier.

Cubs are away to a flying start with Galvin's acquisition, as he will supply a lot of spark to the team as well as punch at the plate and on the field.

Sox Switch Appling To Prolong Career

PHOENIX, Ariz., March 31.—(AP)—Old Luke Appling, 17 seasons a Chicago White Sox shortstop, is seeking baseball's fountain of youth at third base this campaign.

The shift was ordered by Manager Ted Lyons, who thinks it will prolong the amazing career of Lucious Luke, fixing to celebrate his 39th—he says—birthday on Friday.

Swapping places with the two-time American League batting champion will be 28-year-old Floyd Baker, one of the most agile infielders in the business.

Appling's listed birth year is 1909, which gets a wink from people who know Luke well. Somewhere along the line, they say, Appling celebrated the same birthday two or three times.

"Appling moans and groans perennially about his physical state—"Old Aches and Pains" his teammates call him.

RELIABLE SWATTER

Lyons didn't pay much attention to the complaints of his most reliable .300 hitter until last season. Then, in mid-September, Luke admitted he would like to sit out a few games, and he really meant it.

The eagle-eyed swatter from Dunwoody, Ga., took a little rebuilt this spring about leaving a position he could play from a rocking chair. Third base is known to inflict less wear and tear on his aging pins. But even then he had to be coaxed.

FANCY APPLING TOUCH

Now, he is giving the hot corner the fanciest Appling touch and Lyons is confident Luke will add "one or two years" to his career.

Luke batted .306 last season, finishing in the league's top 10. His best season was 1936 when he took the league crown with a whopping .388. He won the championship again in 1943 with .328.

Baker, a .264 hitter last year, will have to fight it out at shortstop with Cass Michaels (.273). Lanky Johnny Wallaesa, former Toronto player, might have a chance if he could improve his woeful carry-over batting mark of .195.

One of the earliest types of torpedo was towed across the bows of an enemy ship by a small boat.

Edmonton Should See This

NELSON, B.C., March 31—If and when Edmonton's City Fathers get around again to the question of a civic centre of one kind or another, they could do worse than delegate some one to do a little scouting of the all-service plant of which Nelson boasts.

Built 10 years ago at a cost of $285,000 the concrete and steel building houses: (A) an auditorium 200 feet long, presently leased to Famous Players for use as a cinema (showing: James Cagney in "13 Rue Madeleine"); (B) a recreation hall 143 feet by 30 feet, the largest of its kind in the B.C. interior; (C) an arena, 180x80 feet, which will accommodate 3,000 fans; (D) a five-sheet curling rink where annually is staged Nelson's rapidly-gaining-in-prominence mid-summer 'spiel.

On the north side of the building is the civic stadium boasting a 440-yard cinder track, a roofed-in grandstand, with seats for approximately 400, a baseball diamond, football field and various pits for field events.

And, oh yes. It should have been mentioned that the main building houses a many-thousand volume civic library. Talk about a layout this is it.

★ ★ ★ ★

Centre Amazes Flyers

Not a member of the Flyers but has expressed amazement that a city of less than 8,000 inhabitants could have come up with such an eye-filling serviceable centre.

"We've got nothing like this even in Edmonton," more than one native has heard from Alec Pringle, Bud MacPherson or one of their team mates.

For Monday's Flyer-Trail tilt manager Archie Birse (recently of Calgary) had the arena portion of his building shining like a newly cleaned silver platter. The ice was white with the markings freshly done over in red and blue paint.

At game time there wasn't a scrap of paper or other refuse anywhere in the stands.

The annual rotary ice carnival, considered one of the finest of its kind in Canada, is held in the arena. Right now Nelson figures skating enthusiasts are trying to line up Barbara Ann Scott for a mid-summer appearance.

Designed For Young And Old

Home of the Nelson Maple Leafs of the West Kootenay loop, the arena is well lighted. A large, electrically operated clock beats out the minutes for the patrons. On the sour side is the presence of a number of girders.

Seems that the centre was being built the citizens got a good deal on the steel supports. They've regretted ever since-having taken advantage of the offer.

A five-man commission calls the shots for Nelson's civic centre. It's described in an official brochure as "one of Canada's outstanding recreational and amusement centres for men and women, young and old, and especially the children."

It's all of that—and then some.

Monday afternoon manager Birse showed us through the building in company with "Windy" Lindon and Bernie Ost, referee in charge of the Flyer-Smoke Eater series, and "Ace" Bailey, formerly with Calgary Stampeders of the gridiron whirl.

A look in on the gym session uncovered a group of little tykes, one or two no older than eight or nine years, up to their necks in a hot game of basketball. Others were clamoring to get into the library and a few youngsters also taking advantage of the Easter recess from school, all found their way to the arena.

Whoever included in the brochure the phrase "especially for the children" was giving out with more than mere lip service.

Granted what does in Nelson as a civic centre might not meet the needs of much larger Edmonton.

But for our part we feel a little humbled after seeing what has been accomplished in this wide awake mountain community.

Detroit Has Pitchers But Short of Power

LAKELAND, Fla., March 31.—(AP)—Detroit's five-star pitching staff, faces a back-breaking task. It must make up for lack of power and an unsteady infield.

Despite mound strength, the Tigers do not appear capable of matching either New York or Boston in the American League race. They may have trouble with Cleveland and possibly Philadelphia, although they finished second in 1947.

Manager Steve O'Neil thinks he has the best pitchers in the league in Hal Newhouser, Freddy Hutchinson, Dizzy Trout, Virgil Trucks and Art Houtteman. He also has two kid southpaws up from Buffalo—Ted Gray (11-7) and Bill Pierce (14-8). Stubby Overmire will do spot duty. Al Benton and Hal White will be in the bullpen.

Newhouser now is ready to go nine innings. Trout and Houtteman each already have gone the route. Trucks has a string of 27 innings with only one run and Hutchinson is set for a big year. Both Trout and Trucks are in top shape and eager to make up for their poor records last summer.

NEED RUNS

There is only one trouble. Somebody has to get some runs to back up the pitching. Little power has been added to bolster the club's 1947 team batting mark of .258.

At first base, O'Neil plans to use George Vico, a .307 hitter at Portland. He has been averaging about one hit a day during the spring games. Roy Cullenbine who had the job last year is now with the Phillies.

Eddie Mayo is making a fine comeback to hold his second base position and George Kell, of course, is at third.

Shortstop remains a problem. Eddie Lake, a holdover with a .211 average, reported late and had seen no action as the club broke camp Tuesday. Two youngster boys, Cornelius (Neil) Berry and John Lipon have been splitting the work. Lipon hit .295 at Dallas and Berry batted .299 at Buffalo.

First string catcher will be Bob Swift, a capable receiver, but a .251 batter. Hal Wagner ranks second with a .275 mark.

Dick Wakefield in left, Hoot Evers in centre and Vic Wertz in right probably will be the starting outfield.

Doc Cramer, now a player-coach, Eddie Mierkowicz and Pat Mullin on early season trial in '47, will be reserve outfielders. Jimmy Outlaw will fill in at third and the outfield.

The Matterhorn in the Pennine Alps was first scaled in 1865 by a party under Whymper, Lord Douglas and Hudson.

Miller Helps Graziano Out Of Doghouse

WASHINGTON, March 31.—(AP)—If middleweight champion Rocky Graziano beats Sonny Horne here next Monday night, he should credit an assist to Col. Harvey L. Miller, executive secretary of the National Boxing Association.

For if it hadn't been for Miller's persistence, the fight—a 10-round non-title bout—might not have been scheduled at all. And Graziano would have stayed where he was—in the boxing doghouse.

Graziano first was barred in New York for failing to report a bribe. Later he was barred in Illinois because he once went AWOL when in the United States Army.

Now he is barred in 15 states and in Miami, Fla. Several other states have refused to take a stand. They say they will wait until Graziano asks for permission to fight in their states before they rule.

But his record didn't stop Miller, who told reporters:

"First, strictly from a boxing standpoint: he was the champ, and the champ ought to lose his title in the ring.

"Second, strictly from a military standpoint: he had served his time at the army rehabilitation school at Fort Leavenworth, Kans. They taught him to box there; it was part of his rehabilitation.

"The way I figured it out, he had paid his debt—in full."

Senators Three Up

OTTAWA, March 31.—(CP)—In a game that simmered near the boiling point throughout, Ottawa Senators Tuesday night defeated Quebec Aces 5-2 and moved near to the Quebec Senior Hockey League title with a 3-0 lead in their best-of-seven series.

Toronto Pucksters Mobbed After Dubbing Bruins 5-1

BOSTON, March 31.—(AP)—Toronto Maple Leafs outplayed Boston Bruins by the widest of margins while gaining their third straight National Hockey League playoff triumph by a 5-1 margin Tuesday night before a packed 13,909 crowd. On their current form, Leafs are top-heavy favorites to wind up this best-of-seven post-season competition in straight games here Thursday night.

From a competitive standpoint, it was one of the most one-sided conflicts in the league's playoff history. Even with Jack Crawford, their outstanding defenceman, back in action, Bruins were homelessly bogged from start to finish.

When the final bell sent most of the 4,041 players to their dressing rooms, defenceman Wally Stanowski returned to the Toronto bench for his stick.

He was immediately surrounded by a large crowd of hostile spectators. Two of his teammates noticed his dangerous plight and returned to aid him. They managed to get Stanowski out of the crowd and headed for the exit. But a spectator jumped Garth Boesch from behind and felled him with a blow to the head. The crowd dispersed before police could reach the scene of the disorder.

White

It took Bruins 40 minutes to get five shots on Turk Broda's cage and their goal, made just after the second period faceoff, was a fluke affair. Crawford laced a 50-foot shot in the general direction of the Toronto cage and the puck was deflected in by Milt Schmidt's chest.

Maple Leafs romped off to a speedy two-goal lead, on counters by Howie Meeker and Bill Barilko. About eight minutes after Schmidt's scoring accident, Teeter Kennedy, who scored four times in the second game at Toronto, countered his own rebound.

With a 3-1 lead that appeared invincible Leafs took matters easy during the finale and stressed their air-tight defences. But Bruins left a wide opening for Garth Boesch to counter with Kennedy's assistance at the seven-minute mark.

The final Toronto tally, made by Nick Metz unassisted, came while each team had two players in the penalty box. Ed Harrison and Meeker were serving minors for roughing and Murray Henderson and Harry Watson majors for a brutish bare-knuckle fight.

LINE-UPS

Toronto—Broda; Boesch, Barilko; Kaye, Kennedy, Watson; Stuhe-Kennedy, N. Metz, Lynn, Morteon, Thomson, Bentley, Meeker, S. Smith, Klukay, Stanowski.

More Pro Aid Urged For Rural Hockeyists

WINNIPEG, March 31.—(CP)—There's only one thing for it if the professional hockey leagues wish to assure themselves of a steady flow of young players, says Tony (Winnipeg Tribune) Allan—the pro clubs will have to invest more money in amateur hockey from the playgrounds up.

"Already," says Tony, "the pros have a substantial investment in the larger urban centres. Their next field of investment might well be the rural areas."

Allan puts the suggestion forward in the wake of a letter from a reader taking him to task for some things he had to say about Port Arthur's West End Bruins, jousting with Winnipeg Monarchs in the Memorial Cup playoff fight.

"How can you expect to have a good team when Winnipeg insists on having three junior teams? Why not look around to the smaller towns in Manitoba? Give them encouragement to enter teams. Winnipeg fans are tired of seeing their own teams playing one another—proof is made amid crowds during the season," said the fan.

Tony—unable to decipher the signature of his reader—dubbed him Mr. X. . . .

He goes on:

"Somebody should take Mr. X aside and explain the facts of life to him. Nowadays, money talks . . . and the present high cost of grade 'A' junior teams is far beyond the financial resources of small centres like Kenora and Portage La Prairie."

Allan says that when the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association raised from eight to 13 the number of players a team was allowed at times, it sounded the "death knell of junior hockey in the small towns."

More than that, the CAHA's Manitoba branch permits its teams to dress 14 players for league games, and each club can sign up 16 players.

"Obviously, that puts the small towns at a disadvantage. Portage and Kenora never saw the day when they could find 16 players of junior age, let alone 16 players of junior calibre, without relying on imports from Winnipeg."

Ruth Leaves Himself Off All-Time All-Star Team

PHILADELPHIA, March 31.—(AP)—Babe Ruth picked an all-time, all-star baseball team Tuesday but left right field open because "I just don't want to pick myself."

Here is the lineup as it appeared in the Saturday Evening Post:

Pitchers—Walter Johnson, Washington Senators; Christy Mathewson, New York Giants; Grover Cleveland Alexander and Herb Pennock, New York Yankees.

Catcher—Ray Schalk, Chicago White Sox.

First base—Hal Chase, New York Yankees.

Second base—Napoleon Lajoie, Cleveland Indians.

Shortstop—Honus Wagner, Pittsburgh Pirates.

Centre field—Tris Speaker, Cleveland Indians.

Right field—Mr. X.

Leaving the selection of the right fielders to his readers, Ruth offered as candidates Harry Heilmann, Joe Jackson, Harry Hellman, Ross Young and Mel Ott.

Chase got the call over Lou Gehrig or George Sisler at first because he "was no punk at the plate" and had "unbelievable fielding ability."

"I put Larry Lajoie at second (for his) remarkable hitting skill (and because) Lajoie could make the hardest chances look easy," Ruth said.

COLLINS ALWAYS READY

"Honus Wagner was just head and shoulders over anyone else at shortstop. Jimmy Collins could come in and pounce on bunts and short hits like a cat, but if anyone tried to cross him up and rifle a hard drive through him, Jimmy was always ready.

"No one can dispute Ty Cobb's right to be placed on anyone's all-star team. He had the biggest lifetime batting average of anyone who ever played big-league baseball and was a whippet on the bases . . ."

"My old sidekick, Tris Speaker, wins centre field in my book, even though I recognize that Joe DiMaggio of the present day Yankees is a great centre fielder. But 'Spoke' had something extra-special."

Ruth picked Schalk as his catcher because "the White Sox" good showings against the far-stronger Yankees were largely due to Schalk's careful coaching of his pitchers. He was one of the greatest throwers I've ever seen.

"You can take my four pitchers, Johnson, Mathewson, Alexander and Pennock, in any order. Walter Johnson always knew what to pitch. Christy Mathewson belongs among the pitching immortals. Old Alec was just a born pitcher. Herb Pennock was a left-handed Mathewson."

PROGRESS SHOWN IN EDMONTON

Art Exhibition Tells Story of Steady Growth

By M. W. MacD.

One of the largest art exhibitions in many years opened recently in Edmonton under the auspices of the Edmonton Art Club.

For 27 years the public has watched the development of this club and have shown some concern for art in this city and for the people who have produced it.

One wonders what they have accomplished, where they are going and how successful they have been in reaching their objectives.

In the exhibition now underway, and lasting until April 3, some idea can be given as to the progress of art in Edmonton and in Canada.

A guest artist, W. B. Milne of Victoria, shows sureness of style in two water colors, "Grass Lake" and "Saskatchewan River Valley". Nellie Armstrong paints "Delphiniums" with assurance, and deftness in the control of values is clearly shown in "Snow Scene".

Dorothy Barnhouse emphasizes design and medium in a large portrayal of "Glacier-Maligne Lake", while Virginia Beardsley gives us two superb talc productions, the type of which is all too rare in this showing.

Neil Bradshaw adds a touch of fantasy in several bold interpretations of mountain scenes, of which "Vermilion Lakes" and "Bow Valley" are notable.

For exquisite water color delicacy. Robert Campbell shows his usual matchless skill in such pleasant compositions as "Hunt of the Mallard" and "Beaver Dam", while Kathleen Cardiff elects life like portraiture as her major contribution. Of these, "Stanley Kaufman" is bright and cheerful. H. Cartmell handles snow with color and positiveness. "Rosy Morn" shows this at its best.

Margaret Chappelle, the president of this club, paints with confidence and skill. There is much power in "Sunset at Elk Island Park," and her technique is progressive and free.

For portraiture in pastel, we turn to Ethel Field, who annually gives us sincere likenesses in soft shades. Ruth Haley attempts successfully, large water colors of which "Sturgeon River" and "Trees at White Mud," have much promise. Charlotte Kaufman designs boldly "The Cypress Trail," while "Sunlight in the Redwoods" is quiet and colorful. M. W. MacDonald shows five in water colors.

A new member, J. B. Taylor, displays a masterly touch in "Peasant Woman," as does Ella Walker in "Cypress and Sea." Mrs. A. Card devotes her painting to Indian Life, while Gertrude Anderson shows deftness in handling values as shown in "Fog on Lake."

The "Poetry in Plastic" episode is performed in a Dutch setting where everything from windmills to wooden shoes are made of plastics.

Show managers say they have assembled the best internationally-famous collection of skating talent yet put on tour.

The show, from skating Dumbo to Pictorial Fantasy is a constant delight to the eye.

One Graduate St. Stephen's

Twenty-third convocation of St. Stephen's College was held Tuesday night at which the sole graduate this year, Russel Gilbert Beairsto, B.Ed, BA, was presented with the testamur of the college.

More than three hundred persons witnessed the convocation held in the assembly hall of the college.

In prizes and awards announced at the convocation, Mr. Beairsto was winner of the Mrs. C. F. Giffen prize for first-class standing in practical theology, and the St. Stephen's book prize.

Annie Harrison scholarship for first-class standing in second year theology was awarded to D. J. S. Pritchard, BA.

Leonard Gaetz scholarships were presented to Blair McPherson and T. Thomas.

LEADERSHIP CALL

In his address, principal of the college Rev. E. J. Thompson called on more men and women to give leadership in the moral and spiritual values of life.

If moral law is not applied to man's scientific and physical progress, Rev. Thompson said, that progress becomes a menace to the very existence of mankind. Solution of the world's present situation, he continued, will not come from material development but from greater moral insight.

In bringing greetings from the Alberta Conference of the United Church of Canada, Rev. J. R. Geeson, president, stressed the need for larger graduating classes in the ministry. This year's graduating class of one was the result of the late war, it was revealed. It is expected that a class of nine will be graduated next year.

Greetings from the University of Alberta, with which St. Stephen's College, operated by the United Church of Canada, is affiliated, were brought by President Robert Newton.

Convocation address was delivered by Rev. C. G. Kilney B.A., of Grande Prairie, who urged the church to consider ways of getting the message of God to the people more effectively.

These Skaters Daren't Fall

Skaters in the "Ice Cyclettes" chorus of "Ice Cycles of 1948" don't dare fall down.

In one production episode of the extravaganza, playing in Edmonton beginning April 22, girl skaters wear huge plastic skirts. So big, in fact, that if one of the girls were to fall, she wouldn't be able to get up again.

Other girls would not be able to help a fallen skater up as the skirts would not allow them to get close enough.

The "Poetry in Plastic" episode is performed in a Dutch setting where everything from windmills to wooden shoes are made of plastics.

Show managers say they have assembled the best internationally-famous collection of skating talent yet put on tour.

The show, from skating Dumbo to Pictorial Fantasy is a constant delight to the eye.

TRUCKS FOLLOW SUIT FORECAST RATE JUMPS

Sweeping Effects Seen Here As Staples Slated for Mark-Up

Alberta truck operators plan to raise transportation rates by 21 per cent in line with new rail freight increases announced Tuesday.

Practically all of the larger freight trucking concerns in the province are members of the Alberta Motor Transport Association. Officers of the association stated Monday they will act with railways in boosting their rates.

Of recent years trucks carry most of the freight going from large wholesale centres such as Calgary and Edmonton to country towns and villages.

One Calgary trucking firm predicted an increase of 30 cents per hundred pounds on groceries transported.

Consumers will have to pay more for several necessities of life and automobiles, household furnishings and appliances, gasoline and even liquor prices are likely to advance.

Oilmen were predicting Canadian railways would lose the greater part of freight business in Leduc oil field development, with U.S. railways bringing heavy equipment to the Montana border.

STAPLES ADVANCED

Canned fruits and vegetables were expected to advance in price by at least one cent per can when new freight rates become effective.

There will be substantial increases on large household furnishings and appliances but men's and women's clothing were not expected to cost more, a canvass revealed.

Meat prices were expected to rise by as much as two cents a pound, depending on how the charge is spread around.

Farmers on the prairies will also be hard hit, it was predicted, with a ton of fertilizer costing at least 40 cents per ton more.

GASOLINE JUMP

Gasoline may cost more as shipment costs per gallon from Calgary refineries to Edmonton are likely to be upped two-thirds-of-a-cent per gallon.

There was bad news in the offing for liquor consumers.

A. J. Mason, chairman of the Alberta Liquor Control Board said it is "possible" that higher prices to the consumer may result from increased freight transportation rates.

Said Mr. Mason:

"Certainly it will cost more to bring liquor into Alberta but we shall have to wait to study further details before any statement on the precise effect can be made."

FORECAST RISES

Some of the possible increases forecast are:

Automobiles, $30 to $40; pianos, $7.35; a 300-pound refrigerator $1.65; chesterfields, 95 cents; dining room suite, $3; farm combines $25 to $30; tractors, $12 to $15.

Increased costs of production with resultant higher living costs will be felt by the farmers of Alberta, officials of the Alberta Federation of Agriculture predicted.

Although farm organizations in Alberta fought efforts to increase freight rates it must be assumed the increase granted is reasonable following the long study by the Canadian Transport Board, one official said.

A decided increase in production costs can be expected by farmers, however.

HYDRANT HIT, STREET FLOODS

A city street was flooded Tuesday night when a truck clipped a fire hydrant in an effort to avoid collision with a car.

Kenneth L. Young, 12921 63 street, told police he swerved his tank-truck and climbed the curb when an auto suddenly appeared in front of him at 99 street and 103A avenue.

City water department trouble shooters stopped the flow of water.

Cliff Gamble, secretary of the Saskatchewan Motor Transport Association, said today Saskatchewan truckers will apply to the provincial highway traffic board for an increase in freight rates following the granting of a 21 per cent increase on rail freight rates yesterday.

He said truck rates had always followed railway rates and "our costs have increased 40 per cent since the war and we just have to have an increase."

Nelson Clarke, provincial Labor Progressive Party leader, said in a statement the increases granted railways "may well give that added impetus to the inflationary spiral which will plunge us into economic crisis within a matter of weeks."

Woodward Choristers Give Pleasing Concert

Third annual concert by Woodward's Choral Society was presented Tuesday night in the Masonic Temple. Choir was directed by Leonard Betts and Randall Stevens, baritone, was assisting artist. In additional solos were sung by Arthur Williams, boy soprano, and the RCAF Band Sextet contributed a group of selections.

Sextet was directed by WO Carl Friberg, and accompanist for the choir was L. F. Bayzand. Constance Drever accompanied Mr. Stevens.

These artists all contributed to an excellent evening's performance. The singers seemed to have their heart in their work and sang some difficult unaccompanied numbers with exceptional skill for an amateur group.

ESPECIALLY GOOD

"Oh Thou, From Whom All Blessings Come," by Tschaikowsky, and several Elgar songs, including "Oh, Soft Was the Song" were especially good. Scarcity in numbers in the male section was the only weakness.

Arthur Williams sang his two soprano solos artistically and with self-assurance. Randall Stevens contributed several nicely contrasted selections, including an unusual number, "The Lute Player," by Allitsen.

The sextet of flute, three clarinets, French horn, and string bass gave a performance so well executed as to quite disguise the fact that this is no easy group of instruments to weld into an artistic ensemble.

PLAYED ANDANTE

They played the Andante from Beethoven's Second symphony, Tambourine of Gressee, and as encore, the Finale from a Haydn Symphony.

L. Wealthy and A. P. Pirie were in charge of the stage and lighting effects.

Second half of the program was broadcast. The concert is being repeated tonight at 8:30.

PRIVATE ACCOUNTS ARE STILL 'PRIVATE'

No details of private accounts were revealed to legislators in private accounts committee, Premier Ernest Manning announced Tuesday.

The committee had gone into secret session Tuesday morning with the intention of discussing details of treasury branch and marketing board operations.

The Premier said he was making the announcement to set at rest any public misgiving on disclosures of private business.

ALL "IN CAMERA" SITTINGS "OUT"

"In camera" sittings of the public accounts committee were out of order, Hon. Peter Dawson, Speaker of the legislature, said Tuesday.

He said to hold a secret session of such a committee called for a direct request from the legislature for such a meeting.

Insurance Act Is Amended

Elmer E. Roper (CCF, Edmonton) won a point in the legislature on Tuesday.

When the bill to set up the government-sponsored insurance companies was before the legislature for third reading, Mr. Roper asked it be returned to committee.

He wanted a clause amended in the bill which would permit the government to withdraw from the insurance business without consulting the legislature.

Premier Ernest Manning said the government had no objections to the proposed amendment. The bill was amended later when the house was in committee of the whole and Mr. Roper was satisfied.

The amendment provided the government with authority to withdraw from the business only with the consent of the legislature.

Spring Still Hides At Prince Albert With Below Temp.

Warmest spot in Canada Tuesday was Penticton where temperature rose to 57 during the day. Prince Albert had another good taste of winter when the mercury hit 15 below zero. Other temperatures were:

Alta. Labor Act Not Retroactive

Reference to the Star-Key mine labor dispute resulted in a last-minute amendment to the Alberta Labor Act Tuesday.

Legislators had been giving the labor legislation its clause-by-clause review in committee when A. J. E. Lieseimer (CCF Calgary) asked if reference terms of the bill would be applied to the Edmonton mine strike.

He was assured by Hon. C. E. Gerhart, minister of trade and industry the government has no intention of applying terms of the new bill to that dispute.

Hon. Lucien Maynard checked the point from a legal angle and introduced an amendment exempting industrial disputes which started before the act become effective from the new restrictive terms.

New Labor Act Clause by Roper Twice Rejected

Two efforts by Elmer E. Roper to introduce a new clause to the Alberta Labor Act were met with an "out-of-order" ruling by Committee Chairman James Hartley on Tuesday.

Committee was considering a bill amending the Alberta Labor Act and Mr. Roper was trying to introduce a clause dealing with labor relations where a signed contract already exists.

The second time he tried to get his amendment into the bill he challenged the chairman's ruling, but when his motion was put to the committee, it was voted down.

Prepaid Medical Plan For Alberta Gets Third Reading

Third reading was given a bill to incorporate a prepaid medical plan for Alberta on Tuesday.

Members, including Mrs. Rose Wilkinson (SC Calgary) and H. Earl Ansley (SC Leduc) who had fought against the bill contented themselves with voting against third reading.

Only Royal Assent is needed to make the bill into law.

Young Liberals Meet Wednesday

Edmonton Young Liberals will meet in the USO hall on Wednesday night at 8:00 o'clock.

President J. K. Rootes of the group announced Mack Lyle, Edmonton barrister, would speak on "New Canadians."

City Spiritualists Mark Centennial, Tenth Anniversary

Edmonton spiritualists will celebrate the centennial of modern spiritualism in September.

F. E. J. Hancock, vice-president of the City Temple of Spiritualism, said today the occasion will be combined with the tenth anniversary beginning of Spiritualism in Edmonton.

Spiritualists mark anniversary of their belief from March 31, 1848, when the first studies were made in Hydesville, N.Y., by Margaret and Catherine Fox.

Healers Association Bill Gets Approval

Legislation to form an association of naturopathic healers got third reading Tuesday and now awaits only royal assent.

Mrs. Rose Wilkinson (SC, Calgary), who fought from the bill's introduction to have the word "physiotherapy" excluded from it, tried to give a six-month hoist on third reading, but failed.

B.C. Dog Again Wins Top Honors In Show

Kenmare Tailtean, the Kerry Blue Terrier from Caulfield, B.C., was top dog among 182 canines for the second day in succession as the two-day annual dog show closed at the Prince of Wales Armories Tuesday.

The smart, well-trained terrier, owned and exhibited by Mrs. F. Y. MacEachran, was awarded best in show and best Canadian bred honors at close of the English Cocker Spaniel Club of Alberta program.

Monday night the same dog carried off identical awards in the Capital City Kennel Club show.

It was the sixth top championship captured by Kenmare Tailtean in major dog shows.

WINNIPEG MAN JUDGE

S. Saidman of Winnipeg was the judge in Tuesday's show.

A large gallery of Edmonton dog lovers and many from country points viewed the judging Tuesday and officials declared the two-day show the best from standpoint of competition and quality of dogs entered in the city's history.

Jai Tai Pan of Ghenghis Khan swept honors in the toy group. The Pekingese champion is owned by M. J. and Mrs. Gagan of Saskatoon.

The Chow, American champion Kim Chu Nei, owned by Georgia Noyes of San Francisco, was tops in the non-sporting group.

An English Cocker Spaniel, Champion Lady Beth of Seafield, was best in the sporting group. She is owned by John S. and Mrs. Grant of Edmonton.

Mrs. J. Lamb of Vancouver had top winner in the sporting hound group with her Borzoi Thurzalaings Rosamonde.

Best in working dog group was the Shetland Sheep dog, Dempsay's Wee Son of Glen Arbon, owned by Mrs. Mildred Dempsay of Kirkland, Wash.

GIRL'S CRIES SCARE ATTACKER POLICE SAY

Police today were combing the city for a man, said to be about 30 years of age, who allegedly molested a 10-year-old girl shortly before 9 p.m. Tuesday.

The youngster, according to police, was waiting for a bus at the intersection of 102 street and Jasper avenue, when the man is alleged to have accosted her. He is said to have grabbed her and pulled her along the street.

Her cries frightened him off.

She was able to give police a good description of her "attacker."

SHOPPING GUIDE

Kitchen Gadgets Make Housework Interesting

Kitchen gadgets hold a fatal fascination for me and discovering a new lot does amazing things for my morale.

I already have drawers full of thing-a-ma-jigs that I haven't used for years but I just can't resist buying every new one I see.

In spite of this impractical turn of mind concerning gadgets—I do manage to dig up several worthwhile efforts in my browsing through knicknack departments.

Just to prove this let me tell you about a plastic pie-wedge container—a lunch box luxury. It keeps the pie intact and safe from the tuna fish sandwiches. You can buy this for 29c.

• • •

Then there is the nut-meat chopper which chops walnuts, almonds, peanuts, pecans with little more than a flick of the wrist. The result is a wee bit fine but perfect for toppings for fruit salad, icing and the like. These sell for 49c.

• • •

Remember the old wire whisks you used to whip egg whites for your party-best angel food cakes? Well you can't seem to buy those now—but there is another item which gets even better with the gadget-wise householder.

Its actual name is a—kitchama-jig—which all adds up to say it whips, beats, mashes, and crushes soft fruit—handy as anything you could have in your little kitchen and selling for 29c.

• • •

Best of all my finds I liked the icing decorator. It consists of a fabric bag with six plastic tips to make various icing decorations—hearts, stars, diamonds and rosettes.

Over and above all this there are three more plastic tips with larger outlets which you can use to make dainty shaped cookies. It's easy as easy to work and the whole business only costs $1.49. Try one—they're more fun than enough.

Something strictly practical is the wire spoon holder that you clip to the side of a saucepan or mixing bowl to keep your spoon from falling in the mix. This handy little thing costs 33c.

• • •

Incidentaly, saw some bright-colored plastic drinking goblets that would delight little people. Nursery rhyme characters are painted over the sides—Humpty Dumpty, Jack Horner, Little Red Riding Hood and others. You can buy them for 14c a piece.

• • •

Still gadgets, but in a different vein, are the minute Coalport place-card holders to grace your party-pretty dinner table. Tiny flower buds of delicate colors and painstakingly fine detail—they sell for $1.25 a piece.

• • •

Bit of extravagance perhaps—but you know how a slim little bud vase of plain silver lends an air of elegance to your bric-a-brac shelf. It should—the one which caught my eye was priced at $12.95 for the tiniest little vase.

• • •

More elegance—but this time in nocturnal finery—a beauty of a black nighty with oceans of skirt and black ribbon trimming. Spotted this as I was doing a bit of wistful window-shopping and marked it down on my wishful-thinking budget for $12.95.

JOAN CAULFIELD'S CAT never gets on his knees either, but many men would trade places with him at this point.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

The men who read "Why Grow Old?" seem to be taking the column over for a few days. The following letter arrived after I wrote a column about cats.

"Your article about cats interested me. Cats do grow old, but if they are careful to use all nine of their lives, they manage fairly well.

"Cats sleep a lot, especially in cold weather. They relax, sure they do, in a wonderful way! Keeping up with the Joneses does not interest them at all and they never worry as humans do.

"When you wrote about getting down on all fours and stretching like a cat I decided that you do not know much about cats. Did you ever see a cat get down on its knees?

"As for bay windows on a cat, I guess walking on all fours takes care of that. The only bay window my cat ever had disappeared after a few weeks with the arrival of six kittens.

"I could tell you lots more about cats if I had time."

Nope! I never saw a cat on it's knees but just how are we upright animals to achieve the middle of the back stretch without getting down on all fours and stretching like a cat? That's the question. The exercise I described is fine for relaxation. It makes you wish you could purr.

Another cat exercise is the simple stretch. This is also relaxing as well as slimming. Sometimes cats lie on their side and stretch full length from front feet to back feet, extending their legs. In humans this would mean stretching (with arms extended over head) from fingertips to toes.

At other times, cats sit on the floor with all legs bent under them. Then they keep their back legs as they are and stretch forward as far as they can with their front legs—stretching out against the floor. This exercise can be copied by kneeling on both knees and reaching forward as far as possible with the hands, trunk bent forward, arms straight, and fingers on the floor. This is an extremely beneficial exercise.

If you would like to have my exercises for relaxing send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 24 "Exercises for Relaxing," to Josephine Lowman in care of The Edmonton Bulletin.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Help Mother Nature To Overcome Rickets

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Some of the more subtle symptoms of rickets are not always recognized by the parent. While rickets is less often encountered in these days of good feeding and ample dosages of vitamin D, it has not entirely disappeared.

Sometimes, it is the fault of a diet low in mineral values, instead of lack of vitamin D. That might possibly be the cause with Mrs. R. J. G.'s boy who is healthy, active and well-built, but very knock-kneed. "He finds it difficult to run without stumbling," she writes.

Rosemary Jane, seven months old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fedyniak of Delph, Alta.

"What can I do to help him? He is 3½ years of age."

CONSULT A DOCTOR

First, consult a doctor and have him check on the boy's daily diet and the amount of vitamin D he is getting. Have him suggest muscle exercises for legs. The best you can do, then, is to give him this diet, encourage the exercises, see that he has ample sunlight on the bare skin, plenty of sleep and the vitamin D that is ordered.

It is a question whether the bones now set in this form can be altered. But since the pattern of nature is for straight bones, giving nature the materials to work with may have a beneficial influence, even now.

Mrs. J.F.R. writes that her eight-month-old baby is always clammy to the touch, even though the room is not warm. "His head perspires and his shoulders and arms are cold and clammy.

"He gets orange juice and cod liver oil and seems to be active and healthy. He weighs 18 pounds."

PROBLEM FOR MEDICO

This, again, is a problem for the baby's doctor. Maybe, he isn't getting enough vitamin D of a potent kind. It is possible that the foods he gets do not furnish sufficient minerals—vegetables, fruits, eggs, whole grain cereals being the ones with the richest supply of minerals. With only this meager information to work on it is impossible to give more explicit help. But this it was: a natural condition and is suggestive of rickets.

Mrs. A.C.B.: It is natural for babies to walk with legs wide apart in order to achieve better balance. They often turn the toes in or out for the same reason. I think your critics are not very familiar with young babies.

Our leaflet No. 14, "Rickets," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Government Plans Action to Protect Canadian Canneries

OTTAWA, March 31. —(CP)— The federal government is considering action to protect Canadian fish canneries from excessive exports of raw salmon to the United States, officials of the trade department said Tuesday.

They said an embargo would require cabinet sanction and that immediate action was not necessary since only shipments to the U.S. at present are of fresh fish for immediate consumption.

In Victoria Monday R. W. Mayhew, parliamentary assistant to Finance Minister Abbott, said that the federal government might impose an embargo on shipments of raw salmon following canners' protests that American buyers had outbid them for fish supplies.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Unhappy Marriages Become Endurance Tests

When we are told that one marriage out of every three ends in divorce, we are horrified at the thought of all of the unhappiness that lies behind the final break of a relationship that was entered into with such high hopes and fond anticipations.

We think, with pity, of the broken dreams and shattered illusions, of the cruel fights between the man and woman who had once loved each other so tenderly; of the wrecked home, of the bewildered, half-orphaned little children, and we feel that life can have no greater tragedy than divorce.

But I think there is a tragedy as great as divorce in the long, drawn-out suffering of those whose marriages are merely an endurance test.

Husbands and wives whose love has turned to hatred, who take a merciless revenge for their disappointment in their mates by cruel speeches that stab them to the heart, whose homes are places of gloom and strife, and whose children grow up in an atmosphere so filled with quarrels and vituperations that it withers everything that is gay and tender and generous in their souls.

Yet there are thousands upon tens of thousands of such mismated marriages. Husbands and wives live together, year after year, and what they endure in the frustrations of all of their plans for a happy marriage, and in their loneliness in being tied to a mate who does not understand them and with whom they have nothing in common, and their despair while they wait for death to set them free, no words can adequately describe.

SELVES TO BLAME

But numerous and pathetic as the unhappily married are, their misfortune is mainly upon their own heads. The average husband and wife trust how their marriage turns out to luck, instead of devoting every ounce of intelligence that they possess to making it a success.

Most of them don't even bother to get acquainted with the strangers whom they have taken on as life partners. It would save them a lot of grief if they knew how to keep off Tom's or Mary's pet prejudices, dices.

The general idea with many married couples seems to be that they should save their good manners and their best clothes and their funny stories for company; that they are too good to waste on a mere husband or wife. Maybe so, but did you ever know a husband who took to philandering if he had a wife who prettied herself for his coming home of an evening and whose theme song was how handsome and witty he was?

And did you ever know a wife whose husband couldn't stop her nagging with a kiss?

And can't any man feast like a gourmand if he has wit enough to praise his wife's cooking? Yea, verily.

Probably every man and woman start out in marriage to be good husbands and wives, and when they fall down on the job, ninety-nine times out of a hundred, it is because they didn't work on it with any intelligence.

The husband dropped his love-making at the altar and expected his wife to know that he continued to love her because he didn't divorce her. Or he began fault-finding, or he never took her to places of amusement, or even tried to be an interesting companion.

And because the wife felt neglected and got bored and tired of being a baby-sitter, she began using woman's deadliest weapon, her tongue, on her husband, and they quarreled and killed love.

And another marriage that should have been a success turned into a failure.

Streets in Ottawa Are Shining Again As Restrictions Off

OTTAWA, March 31.—(CP)—After four months of semi-darkness downtown capital streets are shining again.

R. W. Caniff, general manager of the Ottawa hydro-electric commission, yesterday rescinded all restrictions on outdoor window and sign lighting because of an improved power supply.

He had previously ordered commercial store and neon sign lighting blackened on downtown streets when a power shortage hit the city before the Christmas season.

Sask. Co-Op. Blamed For Butter Shortage

HALIFAX, March 31. —(CP)— Attorney General Currie charged in the Nova Scotia legislature Tuesday night that a widespread butter shortage had partially been caused by a conservative-dreamery association in Saskatchewan, "coldbloodedly and deliberately holding butter" to force a rise in prices.

The minister was replying to a question by opposition leader Russell Cunningham (CCF—Cape Breton East) as to whether any steps could be done about the shortage.

Beauty Spots Back in Style

Beauty spots—those coquettish little black patches of courtplaster which used to flag eyes to great-grandma's dimples—are back on the faces and shoulders of modern belles.

Meant for the gala occasion when a girl wants to look her most alluring, these tiny foils put provocative emphasis on a dimpled chin or cheek, beautiful eyes, a smooth brow, a pair of shoulders.

Beauty marks can be used singly or twinned for greater effect—if features are THAT good. A girl flirting over her black lace fan may use three heart-shaped motifs to pull glances first to her sparkling eyes, then to her smooth white shoulder.

In addition to heart-shaped conceits, a girl has her choice of beauty-spot motifs cut in star, crescent, triangle or three-leaf-clover designs.

N.E.S. knows this. That is why the Executive and Professional Division has been set up—to provide a country-wide service to employers, and to those in the higher-earnings brackets who are seeking employment.

During the 12-months period ending November 30, 1947, 3,205 men and women in the executive and professional category were placed through the "E. & P. Division".

Fully staffed Regional E. & P. offices have been set up in Moncton, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver; and there is an E. & P. liaison officer in every local Employment Office.

Alberta Fraedrich Weds Lyle Gillis

Christ's American Lutheran Church was the scene of the recent wedding of Alberta Elizabeth Fraedrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fraedrich of Edmonton, formerly of Strome, to Lyle Erwin Gillis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marwell Gillis of Edmonton, formerly of High River.

Rev. W. Heinzig performed the ceremony, for which the altar was banked with spring flowers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gabardine suit of light blue with winter-white accessories and a mauve orchid.

Mrs. Arnold Addley, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor. She chose a navy-blue suit with matching hat and white accessories. Pink carnations comprised her corsage.

Donald Gillis, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Arnold Addley was an usher.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Receiving the guests Mrs. Fraedrich wore a two-piece ensemble of pale blue with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Gillis, mother of the bridegroom, chose a black dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The bride's table was centred with a three-tier pillared wedding cake flanked by bouquets of spring flowers.

Mervil Gillis, uncle of the bridegroom, proposed the toast to the bride.

The couple left by plane for Whitehorse, where they will live. The bride wore for travelling a tan gabardine suit with a black topcoat and black accessories.

Greek Guerillas Suffer Heavy Loss

ATHENS, March 31. —(RUP)— Press reports said the Greek army's spring offensive in the Kroussia mountains was forging ahead and inflicting "tremendous" losses on the guerillas.

A general staff communique reported Greek army troops were pressing westward from Pogonion in Epirus and had reached the Morgana area near the Albanian border.

Military sources said the operations were aimed at "liberating" all of the central and eastern Macedonian area from the guerillas. The Pogonion area was described as large-scale and was said to be supported by artillery.

The press reports said the guerillas were being forced to abandon one position after another in the Kroussia mountain fighting.

The army called up the classes of 1942 to 1946 inclusive, directing them to report between April 20 and 22 to assigned areas.

U.S. A-Bomb Stockpile Adequate—More Coming

WASHINGTON, March 31. — (AP)—The United States has "an adequate supply" of atom bombs and is steadily making more, Congress members said today.

They reported that this information came from David E. Lilienthal, atomic energy commission chairman, during secret testimony before the house appropriation committee Feb. 28.

On the strength of Lilienthal's statements, the committee yesterday recommended an additional $150,000,000 for the commission's work, the full amount asked.

While committee members were reluctant to discuss Lilienthal's testimony, they agreed privately with the statement of Representative Frank Keefe (Rep.-Wis.) that "we have an adequate supply of bombs already manufactured."

They said there were not given any exact numbers and declined to say where the bombs are stored and how big they are.

The conclusion I drew from the testimony," Keefe said in an interview, "is that we are proceeding rapidly with development of the entire atomic energy program. I am satisfied that the atomic program is proceeding in America."

The interest of the protection of

Meanwhile, Senator Bourke Hickenlooper (Rep, Iowa) chairman of the senate-house atomic energy committee said in an interview he believes that if war comes again the United States should use the bomb with the aim of shortening the conflict and saving lives.

"I do not think the bomb should be used indiscriminately, but I have no qualms about our using it strategically, where it will be an efficient means of ending the 'war.'"

Y's Men Prepare Annual Election

Preparations for election of 1948 officers of the Y's Men's club were made at the Tuesday night club meeting by the formation of a nominating committee.

Named to the committee were Dr. Tom How, George Hull, Max Dewar, Eric Smith, Angus MacQueen, Harold Banks, and John Barford.

Joel R. Smith was guest speaker at the meeting. In his address on the early days of Edmonton, he traced the growth from the Indian settlements on the banks of the Saskatchewan river to the staking of the first claim by the Rev. George McDougall at the site of the present McDougall Church.

The speaker was introduced by Clark Healy, general secretary of the YMCA.

A singsong was led by Bert Pettigrew and arrangements were made for holding a Ladies' Night in May.

Plans call for them to play a basketball game against a combined team of Edmonton cadets at 7 o'clock tonight in recreation hall of headquarters, Western Command, and a tour of junctions at the headquarters. A dance is also arranged for tonight.

Tonight's basketball game will be the second of the tour for the Calgary cadets. Tuesday night they met a team of Red Deer cadets.

Guthrie Leaves For Vancouver

Air Vice-Marshal G. M. Guthrie, air officer commanding North West Air Command, left Edmonton Tuesday night for Vancouver on a routine inspection trip.

He is expected to return April 3.

Study Is Planned Of Judge Report

The Judge report on provincial-municipal relations will be studied between now and the next session of the legislature to determine what steps the government will take to implement its recommendations.

Hon. C. E. Gerhart, minister of municipal affairs, told the legislature Tuesday there were no amendments to municipal legislation at session just closed.

The Judge report was so complete and so important, the government felt interested bodies should be given time to study its recommendations before any changes were made.

City's Request Is Turned Down

Machinery on premises was excluded from the taxation powers requested by Edmonton city council in a set of amendments approved by the Alberta legislature today.

The original charter amendments requested by civic authorities asked permission to base assessments on improvements and included machinery in that category. Had this passed the city would have had power to tax sewing machines and refrigerators.

The clause was changed after the municipal law committee heard a plea from Ronald Maitland, KC, on behalf of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce.

The new clause was worded to conform with a similar clause in the Town and Village act.

It was explained that the government is working on a uniform city charter and on uniform province-wide assessment regulations.

Federal-Province Meeting Unlikely

Ottawa Believes Conference Useless Without Ontario, Quebec

By D'Arcy O'Donnell

OTTAWA, March 31.—(CP)—Possibilities of a new Dominion-Provincial conference in the near future are remote.

A cabinet source said today the government felt it would be useless to hold a conference as long as agreements are lacking with Ontario and Quebec. And, as far as he knew, Quebec and Ontario still were not prepared to sign agreements similar to those accepted by the seven other provinces.

He said the cabinet has not considered recently the question of a new conference, although some of the provincial legislatures have hinted that new efforts be made to reach an over-all agreement with all provinces.

The federal government's attitude, he said, could still be summed up in a statement which Prime Minister Mackenzie King made July 15, 1946, a few months after the last Dominion-provincial conference ended in failure. In that statement, Mr. King said:

"As soon as there is sufficient acceptance of the proposed tax agreements, we shall be ready to explore in general conference or otherwise the possibility of working out mutually satisfactory arrangements in regard to the whole or any part of our earlier public investment and social security programs."

Home To Ask Reinstatement

Mrs. James E. Peterson, an officer of the home, said today the chapter will ask to be reinstated.

"It is in the interests of all ex-servicemen with children that our requests be granted," said Mrs. Peterson.

Capt. Craig Mooney, staff officer of the personnel selection service at army headquarters, Ottawa, is in Edmonton today.

Capt. Mooney has completed a month-long tour of army northern installations along the north highway as far north as Fort Churchill. He is now enroute to Ottawa.

He inspected conditions of service in Canadian army outposts and spent 10 days at a combined experimental station at Churchill. He spent the same time visiting maintenance camps and signal stations along the overland route to Whitehorse.

His main job was to check the recently revised medical standards which have been set for service in the Canadian army. Because of conditions in the north, these standards require close supervision, Capt. Mooney said.

He will report his findings to officers at Army headquarters.

Socred Board Goes Out of Existence

The Alberta Social Credit board goes out of existence Wednesday.

The board was formed in 1937 when some Social Credit members of the legislature rebelled against the Aberhart government on the grounds Social Credit was being forgotten.

Since its birth, the board has been engaged on research and propaganda work.

At the 1947 session a storm broke around the board when its annual report was presented to the legislature. That majority rule and the secret ballot were not "true democracy."

Members of the board are: A. Y. Bourcier, chairman, N. B. James, secretary and W. Tomyn. Floyd M. Baker resigned from the board in January to take over an appointment with the Social Credit league.

King, Truman to Meet At Ceremonies Friday

By Clyde Blackburn

WASHINGTON, March 31. — (CP) — Prime Minister Mackenzie King of Canada was in nearby Williamsburg, Va., last night, where he and President Truman will meet Friday in historic ground.

The prime minister, Viscount Alexander, governor-general of the Dominion, and President Truman will receive honorary degrees from the College of William and Mary, oldest University in America.

The academic procession, that magnificent array of colonial Williamsburg, the Rockefeller unit which bought and restored the 18th century capital of the British colony in Virginia, arranged a Canada-American day at the college and Mr. King is guest of the restoration officers.

HONOR PRIME MINISTER

The ceremonies were arranged pparticularly to honor the prime minister who has spent many spring holidays in Williamsburg and is a familiar figure to residents of the Norfolk-Newport area.

A previous meeting between Mr. King and President Roosevelt last brought important developments, such as the Ogdensburg agreement on joint defence, the Hyde Park agreement on joint use of war materials and the reciprocal trade agreements.

One of his first meetings with President Truman resulted in the three-way agreement among Canada, the United States and Britain on development of atomic energy in the fall of 1945.

In view of the current tense world situation and the preparedness program under way here, it seems certain that the prime minister will, at some stage of his visit, have an important private discussion with President Truman.

But in view of the fact that he has no advisers with him, it seems unlikely that anything in the way of a "Williamsburg agreement" will develop.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—(AP) —The White House said today there is "no political significance whatsoever" to the forthcoming meeting of Prime Minister Mackenzie King and President Truman.

'Dream Play' Wins 3 N.T. Contract

By William E. McKenney

The other night Charles Lochridge, secretary of the Vanderbilt Cup Committee, said, "Mac, I finally found the dream hand." Here it is.

Lochridge (South) won the opening lead of the queen of spades with the ace and led the queen of clubs. West played the four-spot and East the five. The play of the five gave West the tipoff that Lochridge held just the king-queen-jack.

He continued with the lack of clubs, West went in with the ace and his partner played the three.

Now the club suit was established, but Lochridge still had to cash the king and get into dummy, in order to try to kill the entry into dummy West made the rare play known as the Deschapelles Coup. He led the king of hearts.

Now came Charlie's dream play. He did not go up with dummy's ace. He played the three-spot, and from his own hand threw the queen of hearts. When West continued with the six of hearts, Lochridge finessed the ten in dummy. When it held he led the ace of hearts, discarding the king of clubs from his own hand, then cashed dummy's three good clubs.

I said, "Charlie, suppose that East had held the jack of hearts?" But Charlie replied, "I told you this was my dream hand."

Oat Market Activity Feature at Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, March 31. — (CP) — Trading was fairly active in oats on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today, with good buying attributed mainly to milling interests and a moderate processor demand. Dealings in barley futures were not too active, although some buying came in in the later stages, mostly on light offerings.

During a thin trading session in rye, some demand attributed to export interests was evidenced in May rye, and selling by American firms was noticeable in October rye.

Prices of class two wheat for export to countries other than the United Kingdom was reduced three cents.

No export business was reported.

Chicago Grain Move Lower

CHICAGO, March 31. —(AP)—All grains moved lower on the Board of Trade today. Trading was active and prices were off several cents at times. However, the market recovered partly from its extreme lows.

Disappointment over the amount of flour bought by the government was one factor in selling of wheat. Lower prices for the cash grain at major terminals also caused selling. Dealers said there was some hedging pressure, indicating the country was selling cash grain more freely.

Corn was as weak as wheat most of the day. Oats showed some hesistance to the decline, helped by good shipping sales of cash oats.

Wheat closed 2¼ to 3 cents lower, corn was 1 to 2½ lower and oats were ⅛ lower to ¼ higher.

Cash wheat: No. 2 red 2.59. Corn: No. 2 yellow 2.35½.

OIL

Another hangar at Edmonton's municipal airport has been added to the list buildings in the area that has been turned over to oil. McColl-Frontenac has taken over a large area in one of the former RCAF hangars to house oil exploration equipment arriving from the United States. Soft southern accents tell that the equipment has crossed more than one state line to get here too.

Ralph Wales is in charge of a party of seismograph experts loaned by the Texas Company to McColl-Frontenac to carry out an extensive exploration program west of the city. He has three complete crews with him at present and more on the way. The men are from as far away as Louisiana. A number hail from Texas company headquarters at Houston, Texas.

Two contract companies are also represented. The Findlay Company comes from Houston while the Young Drilling Company calls Oklahoma City home. These companies drill holes for seismograph crews.

Amerada Corporation of New York has put a second seismograph party to work in Alberta. A Canadian Exploration Co. party has commenced work on an area northwest of Red Deer where the company has extensive holdings. The party is based at Rimbey at present and will be working northwest of the town. The other seismic crew is working in the area between Red Deer and Calgary.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—(AP)—The weather bureau reported Tuesday that fall-sown wheat, rye and oats made good to excellent progress generally during the last week.

Rapid growth and improvement were reported from southern parts of the country, and greening of the crops as far north as Southern Minnesota.

The bureau said reports indicate wheat mostly is in good to very good condition. However, the plants of late germinated wheat were said to be still generally small in sections of the southern portion of the western plains.

Confidence and Markets

Stable markets and a strong economy require:

Confidence in Canada and its prospects for sound development and progress;

Confidence in its form of government—Dominion, Provincial and Municipal;

Confidence in corporate enterprise to continue developing the great resources of the country.

This confidence was abundantly demonstrated during the perilous war years when the Canadian public invested over 12 billion dollars in Victory Loan bonds at a 3% yield.

In our judgment, present conditions indicate that this broad yield level will be well maintained.

Therefore, at current prices, we recommend the purchase of Dominion and Provincial government bonds, and securities of sound corporations.

RAIL EMPLOYE WAGES NEXT?

Boost in Retail Prices Now Appears Inevitable

By The Canadian Press

Business firms now can devote some time to figuring out how much higher freight rates will add to their costs, and how much of it they will pass on to the public.

Tuesday's announcement can scarcely have come as a surprise—the matter has been in hearing for 1½ years and the jump wasn't underestimated in forecasts.

The most disturbing angle to most is the effect on the general price situation. This has nothing to do with the merits of the specific case of the railways, who have had no increase in a long time despite rising costs, and who claim they have been able to carry on only because of abnormal traffic. Neither has it anything to do with arguments against the increase.

It does have to do with the fact that more than 2½ years after the end of the war an industry representing such a large part of the country's economy has found it necessary to ask permission to raise its prices—and the Board of Transport Commissioners has found them justified, at least in large part.

To say the least this does not light up any road to a lower general price structure. Two admittedly optimistic views may be taken:

1. That the activity of the country is such it may be able to absorb the increase without feeling it too much.

2. That the railways may be a particular case—that, as they say, they have been able to get along only because of abnormal war and post-war traffic, and that the present increase is really something normally overdue.

These can be matched with many pessimistic views which are receiving wide-spread expression.

Whatever the case, the railway story is far from over. Not only will rate increases be a burning topic for some time, but demands of employees for increased wages are current.

Canadian security markets ended a three-day Easter holiday in fine fettle, and New York resumed its advance which had been interrupted for a couple of sessions. Virtually all groups were up in Montreal and the Toronto industrial index advanced 1.70 points to 161.22, its highest since Feb. 9. Toronto base metals also advanced nearly two points, again a high since Feb. 9. Western oils also were ahead but golds dropped. Canadian Pacific Railway advanced $1.25 in Montreal and $1.37 in Toronto, closing at $14.50, the day's high, on both exchanges. In New York the Associated Press 60-stock composite was up .6 at 64.4, a peak since Jan. 16.

Grains tended off and New York cotton futures closed 25 cents a bale higher to 25 cents lower.

Britain's Budget Provides Paradox

Record Surplus for Nation Fighting Economic Disaster

By Fraser Wighton

LONDON, March 30.—(Reuters)—Sir Stafford Cripps, cast by circumstances as the iron chancellor of Britain's austerity regime, will have the paradoxical duty next Tuesday of announcing an all-time record budget surplus to a country fighting desperately to avert economic disaster.

With a domestic credit balance of probably £800,000,000 (£3,200,000,00) Sir Stafford, as head of the British cabinet team of economic experts, is engaged in an all-out effort to close the menacing gap between Britain's import and export trade.

Even if by the target date of mid-summer, he succeeds, British trade though balanced in an overall world sense will still show the colossal dollar deficit of between £250,000,000 and £300,000,000.

Production targets for the end of this year if achieved will reduce the dollar deficit considerably.

But the economic disequilibrium between the United States and the great part of the world in the sterling area will continue to be a brake on Britain's uphill fight toward prosperity.

FEW RELIEFS SEEN

Sir Stafford, casting around for new sources of hard currency revenue next week, will have few reliefs to offer to the British taxpayer, if indeed he does not call for further belt-tightening all round.

Budget predictions this year, particularly cautious, concentrate on five points:

1. The cabinet's decision for or against a capital levy. The decision has been taken but it is a closely-guarded secret.

2. Certainty that Britain's £400,000,000 food subsidies will continue as a protection against inflation.

3. Expectation that most of the purchase tax now imposed on commodities to check domestic spending will remain.

4. Likelihood that domestic income tax will continue at the present high level of 9 shillings a pound sterling.

5. Possibility of fluctuation—upwards or downwards—in the price of tobacco. Cigarettes now cost the unprecedented price of six for a shilling.

Inland Shipping Rates Going Up

MONTREAL, March 31.—(CP)—An inland shipping official said Sunday that he expected freight rates on package freight cargoes from inland ports to Montreal will be increased 21 per cent, the same increase as granted the railways by the Transport Board.

"We have generally kept our rates on a parity with the railways and there is little doubt but that the 21 per cent increase will go into effect on package freight ships as soon as the season opens," he said.

He expressed doubt that the authorized increase would affect coal, grain, and other cargoes for the time being.

Panama Canal Will Have Edge

VANCOUVER, March 31.—(CP)—The re-routing of British Columbia lumber to eastern Canada by ship in preference to rail may result from the new freight rates increase.

Shippers Tuesday said the rail rates will definitely give the edge to the water route via Panama Canal, which handled the bulk of pre-war shipments.

The relative competitive position of rail and water shipments to eastern Canada changes almost daily with fluctuations in ocean freight rates.

Howard Mitchell, president of the Vancouver Board of Trade, forecast an increase in the wage-price inflation and lower living standards.

He said new price advances and wage demands would rob the railways of much, if not all, of their anticipated gain through increased rates.

Plane Crack-Up Ends Reynolds' Mountain Flight

PEIPING, March 31. — (BUP) — Chicago Millionaire Milton Reynolds' plan to map the secluded Amne Machin mountain range of Western China ended today when his plane cracked up in soft earth in a Chinese military airfield. No was injured.

"This ends the expedition," Reynolds said. "It would take weeks to repair the damage. Even then it is questionable, since maybe we couldn't get parts here. It would take months to get them from the United States. The expedition's scientists can't wait a day longer."

IT WOULD TAKE more than $1,000 to buy these silver fox furs draped around this lady in the Canadian Fur Auction Company rooms in Montreal, where more than $1,500,000 worth of skins went on sale recently.

QUEEN OF DANCE HALL GIRLS

One Time Yukon Belle To Wed for Second Time

BEND, Ore., March 31.—(AP)—Klondike Kate, once the Belle of the Yukon, will take a second husband at Vancouver, Wash., Thursday.

Now 68 and known as Mrs. Kate Rockwell Matson, the one-time beauty of the northlands will be married to W. L. Van Duren, Bend accountant, whom she has known for 18 years.

Her first husband—she did not marry until she was 53—died 1½ years ago on a frozen Yukon trail.

He was John Matson, a miner who had carried his love for her 33 years before he worked up the nerve to ask her hand.

After her days as queen of the dance-hall girls, in the Alaskan gold rush, Kate homesteaded on dry farmland east of here. She first met Van Duren when he entered a convalescent home she started here later.

The couple leave for Portland, Ore., today. After the wedding Thursday, they plan a short honeymoon trip, probably to California.

It will be Kate's first real experience as a housewife.

After her marriage to Matson, she came back to Bend, and he went to his diggings in Alaska. They met only occasionally through the years, generally when Kate made a trip to Dawson.

Matson, then 83, died after a heart attack while hiking out from the Yukon to meet Kate in October, 1946.

ALL ABOUT ANTS BUT WHO CARES?

NEW YORK, March 31.—(AJ)—All ants are not busy.

It depends entirely upon which ant you are watching, scientists at the American Museum of Natural History say. They've just returned from Panama and a five-month study of ant behavior there.

They report 40 per cent of the ants spend their time lolling about the nest all day, 40 per cent are good workers and the remainder work just occasionally.

Wounded Robbers Battle For Life

TORONTO, March 31. —(CP)—Laid low by police bullets in an ambush in a darkened warehouse, Norman Bailey, 28, and Albert Smith, 26, battled for life today in a hospital ward. A companion, William Poole, 27, was shot to death during what police described as an attempt to rob the Toronto Florists' Co-Operative Company.

A fourth man, alleged to have acted as lookout and as driver of a getaway car, was arrested two hours after the shooting early yesterday. He gave his name as Edward Blair, 24. Both he and his 21-year-old wife, Frances, taken into custody as a material witness, were remanded to April 6.

Mrs. Blair was released on $1,000 bail but her husband remained in custody. At the time of the robbery Blair was on $10,000 bail pending trial for attempted robbery at Fort Erie.

Bailey, Smith and Blair were charged with shopbreaking and having burglars' tools. They were remanded to April 6.

Treasury Richer

ROME, March 31.—(AP)—United States authorities Tuesday handed Italy's treasury a $4,500,000 cheque in payment for work by Italian prisoners of war in co-operation with U.S. armed forces.

Pike have been known to live for 267 years, and carp for 200.

CARIBOU SOON TO START TREK BACK TO NORTH

THE PAS, Man., March 31.—(CP)—Game experts predicted today that the hundreds of caribou "wintering in the south" likely would be off shortly on their annual spring trek to the far-north barrenlands.

Caribou groups scattered between The Pas and the Ontario boundary are expected to mill towards a rendezvous within the next two weeks. This winter the animals made their way to the tip of Lake Winnipeg, 50 miles farther south than ever recorded before.

A joint survey-census of the caribou is to be undertaken this spring by Dominion and provincial authorities. Vantage point for this survey will be at Ilford on the Hudson Bay railway.

Margarine Ban In Manitoba House

WINNIPEG, March 31.—(CP)—Lloyd Stinson (CCF, Winnipeg) contended Tuesday in the legislature it had been "proved to the hilt" that margarine is a "wholesome and nutritious food" and held that lifting of the ban against it "would surely not result in the ruination of the dairy industry."

Mr. Stinson suggested that dairy farmers would be able to make more cheese and other dairy products if any serious dropping off of their butter income resulted.

W. C. Miller (PC, Morden Rhineland) said he would not support a motion to urge removal of the margarine ban. He contended that in the 62 years that production and sale of it had been prohibited, opinions about the ban had been divided not along party lines but along lines of "political interest."

"In the west we have this protection for the dairy farmer, not because western members agitated for it but because of the strong political effect of sectional interests—the eastern dairy farmers."

Spouse Divorces W. R. Hearst, Jr.

GOODING, Idaho, March 31—(AP)—Mrs. Wm. Randolph Hearst, Jr., was granted a divorce yesterday on grounds of mental cruelty. Hearst is publisher of the New York (morning) American and son of the founder of the Hearst newspaper chain. He did not contest the divorce action, but did file a general denial of Mrs. Hearst's allegations.

Asia Reds Attempting Division of East, West

TORONTO, March 31.—(CP)—Rt. Hon. Malcolm MacDonald, governor-general of Malaya, said Tuesday it would be "fatal" if nations of the Far East gained their freedom "in circumstances which made them bitterly hostile to the nations of the west."

He warned that Communists in Asia are working "energetically" to achieve this hostility.

The former United Kingdom high commissioner to Canada, in an address to the Canadian Club, hailed the granting of freedom to India and Pakistan as one of the great events of the last year. The move had raised Britain's prestige "higher amongst the leaders and masses of Asia than it ever has been."

ALL RE-AWAKENING

He stressed the importance of accepting without qualification the fact that all Asia was under a re-awakening. Four new nations — India, Pakistan, Burma and Ceylon — had been born. The United States had granted independence to the Philippines, the Dutch had agreed to "something like Dominion status for the East Indies, while the French in Indo-China were considering large political reforms.

"It would be fatal," he warned, "if the nations of the East gained their freedom in circumstances which made them bitterly hostile to the nations of the West. The passing of the Asian peoples into camps hostile to the Western democracies would be a disaster for the cause of human liberty."

Pilots to Discuss Aviation Problems

LONDON, March 31.—(Reuters)—Airline pilots from many parts of the world, including Canada, will meet next week to discuss international civil aviation. The conference, to be held April 3-8, aims at securing effective representation on organizations which legislate internationally on civil aviation affairs.

Top Sheared Off But Driver Ducked

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 31. — (AP)—Twenty-year-old Frank Messina Tuesday saw that his convertible sedan was about to collide with a huge trailer truck at an intersection, so he leaped into the back seat and ducked. His machine went under the trailer, and the top was sheared off.

POTTED PLANTS MAY DECORATE MILADY'S BUSTLE

HOLLYWOOD, March 31.—(AP)—As if things weren't bad enough already, comes now Ilyana—Beverley Hills dress designer—who predicts that the newest style will be bouquets or potted plants in milady's bustle.

She said bustles even are being manufactured with receptacles to hold fresh flowers, or even greenery.

"Flowers and ferns worn in the bustle will call attention to skirt detail," she said, approaching the situation conservatively.

Road Plowed Open To Permit Burial

TOGO, Sask., March 31.—(CP)—Three miles of snow-blocked road between this Saskatchewan village 150 miles northeast of Regina and a small cemetery overlooking the village were plowed open yesterday to permit the burial of Hon. R. J. M. Parker, lieutenant-governor of Saskatchewan, who died suddenly last Tuesday.

About 300 persons attended the burial service in the community hall for the man who was given a state funeral in Regina last Saturday and brought for burial near this town where he homesteaded in 1900. Nearly 70 persons came by special train from Kamsack, 20 miles north of here.

Mr. Parker had been reeve of the rural municipality of Cote for 20 years and represented Pelly provincial constituency in the Saskatchewan legislature from 1929 to 1944. He was minister of municipal affairs from 1934 to 1944 and was appointed lieutenant governor in 1945.

Russians Claim Cardinal Sought Separate Peace

LONDON, March 31.—(BUP)—The Moscow radio charged today that Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York discussed a possible separate peace with German officials at the Vatican in February, 1943.

Renewing charges that the western powers sought to betray Russia during the war the Moscow broadcast asserted that Cardinal Spellman "undoubtedly" used a visit to the Vatican "for sounding the ground for the possibility of concluding a separate peace."

"During the entire war," the broadcast continued, "contact between representatives of Britain and the United States on the one hand, and Germany on the other, was unbroken."

PRUDENCE PAYS OFF —IN POLICE COURT

BALTIMORE, March 31.—(AP)—A Baltimore man tucked three dollars in his shoe as a precaution against robbers, but it was the central police court that profited by his prudence.

The robbers who took his pants—wallet and all—missed the three dollars in the shoe.

But Magistrate James R. Cadden relieved the man of $2.45 of it in the form of a discreetly conduct fine, after he was found on a city street corner minus the stolen pants.
